MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

Lt. Col. Hugh L. Carnahan:

1. The "Division 4, 95th Infantry Regiment, 92nd Division, 9th Military District", consisting of 448 members under the command of Hermenegildo Refuerzo has not been favorably considered for recognition. The unit was under the overall command of Colonel Kangleon, but more immediately under Major Alejandro Balderian. None of its members has been previously recognized.

2. Basis for non-recognition:

a. The unit was not maintained satisfactorily in the field in opposition to the enemy. The objectives of the unit were primarily passive, personal protection rather than active harassing of the enemy.

b. Activities of the unit did not contribute materially to the eventual defeat of the enemy. The only activity that can legitimately be claimed for this unit is the supplying of food for the combat forces of Balderian.

c. A definite organization was not established. There was no training, no scheduled meeting of members, or no organized plan of activity.

d. Unit did not show satisfactory continuity of activity and organization. As soon as the small contingent of 20 Japanese was stationed in Tabontabon, the unit became inactive.

e. Many members apparently lived at home, supporting their families by means of farming or other civilian pursuits, and assisted the guerrilla unit on a part time basis only.

3. The unit was purely a volunteer civilian home guard type unit; it had no weapons and no combat activities. Colonel Kangleon stated that the volunteer civilian guards under his command were not military units.

(over)

Dear Mr. Refuerzo:

The "Division 4, 95th Infantry Regiment, 92nd Division", purporting to be a guerrilla organization under your nominal control, is not favorably considered for recognition as an element of the Philippine Army.

A set of general requirements for guerrilla recognition, established by General MacArthur during the liberation of the Philippines, has been used as a guide in considering the record of this unit. After careful investigation and full consideration of all available substantiating records and testimony of witnesses having pertinent knowledge, recognition of this guerrilla unit is not deemed to be warranted because of reasons mentioned below:

- a. The unit was not maintained satisfactorily in the field in opposition to the enemy.
- b. Activities of the unit did not contribute materially to the eventual defeat of the enemy.
- c. A definite organization was not established.
- d. Unit did not show satisfactory continuity of activity and organization.
- e. Members of the unit did not devote their entire effort to military activities in the field to the exclusion of normal civilian occupation and family obligations.

It is requested that you comply with the provisions of Executive Order No. 66, by the President of the Philippines, dated 26 September 1945, copy attached.

Sincerely yours,

DIVISION 4, 95TH INFANTRY REGIMENT, 92ND DIVISION, 9TH
MILITARY DISTRICT, TABOBTABON, LEYTE

In accordance with verbal instructions from Chief of Section, Guerrilla Affairs, G-3, AFWESPAC, Lieutenants Preston S. Bentley and Adelbert T. Weber proceeded to Tabon, Tabon, Dagami, Leyte to contact the "Division 4, 95th Infantry Regiment, 92nd Division, 9th Military District" in order to determine whether or not this organization should be recognized by the United States Army. The following is a summary of the investigation and basis for the recommendation.

HISTORY

In April 1942, Hermenegildo Refuerzo, teacher of the barrio of Tabontabon, Dagami, Leyte, on his own initiative organized a unit of Volunteer Guards. At first he had no name for the unit, and really no definite plans for it. In May 1942, Major Alejandro Balderian, who had an armed force of guerrillas, appointed Refuerzo captain, and gave him the task of providing his unit with foodstuffs and also ^{limited} passive protection by a watcher system. At this time Refuerzo's unit assumed the name of the unit of Balderian, and was known as "Division 4, 95th Infantry Regiment, 92nd Division".

The purpose Refuerzo had in mind when he organized the unit was to preserve peace and order in the town, to build up the morale of the people and to instill in the populace a faith in the United States and the Philippine Commonwealth. He never had intentions of establishing a combat unit.

The men never ^{made} a concerted effort to gather intelligence but when they did stumble upon some while engaged in their watcher system, they gave this information to the unit of Balderian.

FINDINGS

The following named persons are those interviewed by the contact team and their statements are the ^{BH SIS} basis for the findings and recommendation.

1. Col Ruperto Kangleon, CO 9th Mil Dist
2. Major Alejandro Balderian, CO 95th Regt.
3. Attorney Enerlan, Tacloban Leyte
4. Thomas Hernandez, Attorney Tacloban Leyte
5. ^{Manuel} Manuel Mundejar, newspaper man Tacloban Leyte
6. William McManus, CIO Tacloban
7. Herminegildo Refuerzo, CO of subject unit
8. Lucas Bibar, 1st Lt.,
9. Gerardo Tolibas, 1st Off
10. Dionisio De la Cruz, 1st.
11. Chief of police, Dagami Leyte,

During the interrogation, Refuerzo the Commanding Officer was very hesitant in his answers, and he had to constantly refer to papers in his possession. He didn't know exactly when he organized the unit, nor did he know the number of members he had.

The unit performed purely home guard type duties. Their main objective was to preserve peace and order in their own town; secondly it was their aim to build up the morale of the people. They set up a watcher system to warn the civilians of the approach of the Japanese, and in this watcher system, each man performed a tour of duty of about six hours a week. Most of the members of this unit are farmers, and they took care of their own farms, and lived with their families at all times.

The unit never had any firearms, not even home made ones. The only weapons they had were bolos. Obviously then this was not a combat unit. After the Japanese came to Tabontabon in 1943, the group did nothing whatsoever; ^{they} even ^{gave} giving up their watcher system. There were 20 Japanese garrisoned in that barrio.

RESTRICTED

The only activities this unit performed was to supply the fighting units under Balderian with food and clothing. At times they also furnished Balderian with information, but that was more by accident than by plan.

One of the members questioned didn't even know the name of the unit. Members of this unit were familiar with only the local situation, they didn't know when Kangleon arrived, and they knew little of his activities. They didn't know that Balderian was under the overall command of Kangleon.

As the greatest activity, they claim the production and procurement of food for the members of Balderians unit.

POLITICAL ASPECT

This unit has no apparent political affiliations or aspirations.

RECOMMENDATIONS

After careful consideration of the statements ~~made~~ made by the interviewed members and an analysis of the documents presented, it is recommended that the "Division 4, 95th Infantry Regiment, 92nd Division" be not favorably considered for recognition.
