Dear Sergeant Pansoy:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter, dated 16 July 1947, addressed to Major Robert B. Lapham, requesting information regarding Squadron 224, 226, and 227, Old Broncho Unit, LGAF.

A set of general requirements for guerrilla recognition, established by General MacArthur during the liberation of the Philippines, was used as a guide in considering the requests for recognition of these guerrilla units. Records of the LGAF on file at this headquarters indicate that Squadron 227 of the Old Broncho Unit satisfactorily fulfilled these requirements. Recognition was therefore extended to this unit.

Unit which served in a reserve capacity, such as Squadrons 224 and 226, were unfortunately, not qualified for official recognition. CVC

The services rendered by yours and similar organizations, although failing to attain to the standards required to substantiate official recognition, were indeed of great value, both to organizations which received recognition and to the resistance movement as a whole. The undying gratitude and profound admiration of your fellow countrymen and of all liberty-loving people the world over are extended to you and all those like you who served their country so valiantly.

Sincerely,

THOMAS J. BROWN
