TO: Hq USAFFE-LGAF, Pangasinan Military Area

The following indorsement of Hq Sixth Army in a case similar to this is quoted for your information:

'There is no intention to restrict recognized guerrilla units to the initial strength reported and listed in letters announcing recognition. It is realized that the first reported strength is that being used at the time of submission of recommendations for recognition. Later, as the situation requires, additional members of the unit are called to full time active duty under US Army units. There is no need to submit additional rosters on such personnel. Their presence and duty with the unit is officially noted by the addition of their names to the unit payroll and the organization commander's certification thereto.'

HISTORY OF SQUADRON 255

Squadron 255 was organized on 1 March 1945, barely two months after the landing of the 6th Army at Lingayen, Pangasinan, in compliance with a request from the I Corps for a company of guerrillas to perform front line duties.

Although the Squadron was a new and young one, the members that composed it were veterans from the USAFFE and from the older squadrons of the district who were left off after most of the men have already been attached to the liberating forces. The men who were picked from Squadrons 380 and 130 constituted the reserve force of the LGAF, but although assigned as reserve, they performed guard and patrol duties and from time to time were utilized as combat units that fought with small bands of Japanese stragglers who roamed the vicinity of Cuyapo and along the borders of Rosales, Munoz and Balungao.

Captain Jeremias Serafica was its organizer, having been ordered by Major Robert B. Lapham to do the job and assume command thereof. Because there was no Squadron then that had enough men to constitute the required strength of a company, Captain Serafica proceeded to San Jose and Cuyapo, Nueva Ecija, and gathered the men held in reserve. From San Jose he got Lt. Lorenzo T. Bermuda and five (5) men, former members of Hq & Hq Serv Company. From Cuyapo, the majority of the members were selected. From Squadron 130 under the command of Lt. Napoleon Serafica, he got a platoon of men and from Squadron 380, he took two platoons under the command of Lts. Nonito S. Dallo and Delfin R. Divina.

Volunteers for front line duties were taken. Emphasis was laid on this fact as the basis for selection in order to pick those who were really decided to join. Many volunteered but only four (4) Officers and 103 Enlisted Men were finally drafted. The rest were sent home.

After forming the Squadron,
 Captain Jeremias Serafica, was recalled to LGAF HQ the first Commanding Officer and Lt. Lorenzo T. Bermuda, it's Executive Officer.
became Commanding Officer of the Squadron.
 But a change was made on this organization because Captain Serafica was assigned to LGAF Headquarters. So Lt. Lorenzo T. Bermuda was made Commanding Officer, Lt. Napoleon Serafica as Executive Officer and Lts. Nonito S. Dallo and Del-fin R. Divina as Platoon Leaders.

Before the Squadron left Cuyapo for its secret destination, the men were given last minute instructions in combat tactics and other front line duties.

The Squadron left Cuyapo, Nueva Ecija, on 11 March 1945 bound for San Manuel, Pangasinan, where the 126th Infantry Regiment was based. This was the first unit to which the Squadron was attached. Here, for ten (10) successive days the men were trained after they have been fully equipped with the necessary equipment.

The Squadron was all set to go to the front when a new order was issued from higher Headquarters on 21 March 1945, for the unit to proceed to Lingayen to guard around the perimeter of the air strip. Then the whole company left San Manuel, Pangasinan, at about three o'clock in the afternoon and proceeded to Binalonan. The men slept there then proceeded to Lingayen the following morning, 22 March 1945.

The Squadron performed guard duties at the Lingayen Air Strip with the 308 Bomb Wing of the 5th Air Force, U. S. Army. Administrative supervision and supply over the Squadron was placed under the following U. S. Army units in their chronological order:

126th Inf. Regt., 32nd Div. -- 11 Mar '45 to 20 Mar '45
 826th Amphibian Tractor Bn -- 21 Mar '45 to 5 June '45
 632nd Tank Destroyer En -- 6 June '45 to 27 June '45

38th Cavalry Rcn Troop (Mechzd) 28 June '45 to 18 Aug '45
"H" Co., 152th Inf. - - 19 Aug '45

On 15 July 1945, a request was made by the Commanding Officer for additional men to replace those who have sought discharge and to meet the increasing need for more men to perform guard duties. This was needed then owing to the increase of outposts for the Squadron which were left by other units who were assigned to other sectors. The full strength of a company as per Table of Organization was followed. Two officers and 43 enlisted men were assigned by LGAF Headquarters to join the Squadron 255.

On 20 to 30 September 1945, the men were processed by the Philippine Army Processing Team at Rosales, Pangasinan. Of the five (5) officers and 134 Enlisted Men of the Squadron at the time of processing, only five (5) officers and 77 enlisted men were left. The rest were either disqualified or left.

Sometime in December 1945, the Squadron left for Rosales, Pangasinan, there being no more duties to perform at Lingayen. The men were stationed here until they were sent to Camp Porac on 14 February 1946, where the men were re-processed and discharged.
