Mr. Tomas M. Beltran

Dear Mr. Beltran:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter, dated 15 September 1947, requesting recognition of Squadron 75.

A thorough search of our files reveals that there is no record of a unit by that name in this headquarters. The closing date for acceptance of unit requests for recognition was 15 March 1946, over eighteen months ago. It is considered that all concerned had ample opportunity to prepare and submit unit requests for recognition prior to that date.

In view of the above, your request is not favorably considered. The papers submitted with your letter of 15 September 1947 are returned herewith.

Sincerely,

1 Incl
Papers submitted by applicant.

SUBJECT: Recognition of Squadron 75, Request for

To: Commanding General
G-3 Guerrilla Affairs
PHILRYOON, APO 707
University Site

1. Request that Squadron 75 be recognized.
2. That said unit was organized by Capt. Louis Bell on 15 September, 1942 duly authorized by Col. Claude Thorpe of the GHQ, ECLGA.
3. That attached Affidavits of my superior Officers are self-explanatory for my request.
4. That said request if granted will help my re-determination of my arrears in pay as had been stated in my processing and reprocessing papers of my induction to the Squadron 75 on 15 September 1942.
