Director, GAD

1. On 21 April 1948, Capt S. C. Buchanan and 1st Lt Jaime H. Mansano traveled to the provinces of Pampanga and Bataan to contact four subordinate unit commanders of the ECLGA. The mission was to deliver letters to the individuals concerned informing them that discrepancies existed between approved strengths authorized for their particular organizations and the strengths of related rosters on hand. Pertinent data is shown in the following table:

NAME	UNIT	STR. OF ROST
		STR. AUTH	ON HAND
Andres Migano	3rd Inf Regt, Bat MD	261	1025
Gregorio B. Cristobal	"D" Co, 2nd Regt, Bat MD	55	156
Leon Fernandez	Engr Gbt Bn, Bat MD	134	291
Valentin Remos	✓ Engr Serv Bn	19	56

2. All the individuals were contacted with the exception of Andres Migano whose whereabouts is unknown although rumor has it that he is in the Visayan Islands and cannot return home for reasons of personal safety.

3. It is significant that all three persons contacted (Cristobal, Fernandez and Remos) exhibited no surprise when apprised of the initial strengths authorized their units and all three (all interviewed separately) volunteered the information that they did not submit the rosters of their units for recognition purposes, but that "somebody" higher up took care of that little item. Fernandez stated that the names of many "bull cart" drivers were submitted along with the names of his "gemines" guerrillas. None of the three displayed overt reluctance to screen their rosters to the proper figure.

Dear Mr. Ramos:

Investigation of the rosters of the Engineer Service Battalion, Bataan Military District, ECLGA, reveals a discrepancy in that the strength authorized by letter, Headquarters, Sixth Army, dated 9 May 1945, subject, "Recognized Guerrilla Units," is 19, whereas the aggregate strength of the roster of the unit submitted to this headquarters is 56.

It is requested that you peruse the attached roster and select the 19 individuals by name and rank who were recognized by the authority quoted in the above paragraph and submit them to this headquarters.

Immediate compliance with this request is necessary in order that a correct roster of the Engineer Service Battalion, Bataan Military District, ECLGA, may be placed on permanent file.

Sincerely,
