EVANS, JAMES L.

Major James L. Evans, O-356781,
Officer's Club, Gregory Terr.,
Australia Base Section, APO 923.

May 7, 1945.

Dear General Whitney:

You will, I hope, pardon my presumption in writing to you informally. Perhaps it can be excused on the grounds of inter-professional courtesy.

Unfortunately, I have not had the opportunity to see you since my return from the assignment with Colonel Fertig, and so must take this method of thanking you for letting me participate in what turned out to be the most unusual and interesting assignment I have had.

Colonel Fertig is, in my opinion, the finest Commanding Officer I have had, and it was a pleasure to work for him in all respects. I have already had the pleasure of writing and telling him so - for what it is worth to him - now that I am "out" and cannot be accused of "apple-polishing."

During the period of my stay in Brisbane, thanks to your consideration in temporarily lengthening my stay here, I have had my "rotation" request approved, but have recently requested that it be changed to a 45 day leave to enable my return to this theatre after some time at home. Col. Myers has indicated that he can use my services with the AIB, and it is projected that I shall return to the Bureau after my leave, if everything goes well.

Could you possibly indicate to me informally what plans are for Col. Fertig? If possible, and he is to continue in this theatre, I should like to work for him again. The AIB work is based upon the presumption that Colonel Fertig will possibly return to the United States, and would be a most interesting assignment in that event.

Colonel Ind was here for a few days last week, and we enjoyed lunch together, and some small discussion of matters dealing with the Bureau of mutual interest. He is looking quite well aside from an "atabrine tan".

At the present time, I am awaiting transportation to the States and filling in the time at the Bureau learning the "ropes" and trying to be of some use to Col. Myers.

Please accept my cordial respects, and congratulations upon your richly-deserved promotion. Perhaps I shall have the pleasure of meeting you again at some future date.

James L. Evans,
Major, M.C.

My dear Mrs. Evans:

I am just in receipt of your letter of 15 May and am glad to advise that your husband is well. Your letters are being put in the channel to him but the mails are slow which undoubtedly accounts for your having failed to hear from him before this. I understand, however, that there are now letters enroute to you - in fact you may already have received them.

Have no fear your husband is safe and well.

Very sincerely yours,

Courtney Whitney
Colonel, Air Corps

P.S. It is not necessary for you to place postage on the letters you send to your husband through me - they are forwarded as soldiers mail.

C/O Postmaster,
San Francisco, California

Dear Col. Whitney:

It has now been six months since I have had a letter from my husband, Major James L. Evans O-356781.

You were kind enough to write me a letter which I received the latter part of February, 1944, telling me that my husband was in fine health, that he was doing a good job, and that he had been promoted to Major.

It was a great relief to me to receive this letter, and I am sincerely grateful to you for writing to me. However, as time goes on and still no letters from my husband, I cannot help being concerned--and hope daily to receive a letter from him. You also mentioned in your letter that there might possibly be a chance for an exchange of letters--but presume this has been impossible, otherwise I would have heard from him.

I have been sending my mail to him in another envelope addressed to you, as you instructed me to, and I wish to thank you for forwarding these letters. I forgot to put a stamp on my last letter, so will inclose a stamp with this note.

Sometime ago I wrote you asking about my husband's address--whether I should continue to send my mail to you, or use the address which I received from the War Department, when the change of allotment notice was sent to me--as follows:
Commanding Chief USAF Far East
A.P.O. 501 C/o Postmaster
San Francisco, California

It will mean a great deal to me to learn some news of my husband --if you can write me again, I will be very grateful.

Yours very truly,

Clair M. Evans

Dear Doc:

Thanks for your note by last mail. The glasses have been prepared and dispatched with this and Colonel Ind has written you in detail concerning the radio problem.

I have passed through several letters from Mrs. Evans and invited her to write you through me just as often as she pleases. Hope that everything is going well with her.

Evacuees who have passed through here have spoken most highly of your assistance to Colonel Fertig and I am only too glad to express my own appreciation for that service.

Don't hesitate to drop me a note on any mail if there is anything that I can do for you here as I shall be most pleased to do anything that I can.

Sir:

There are enclosed some local and home letters, a few rolls of pictures and a pair of glasses.

You will do me a kindness to stamp and send the mail. I cannot seem to find any stamps and am sure the local postoffice is closed.

The pictures consist partly of official and partly of personal "shots". There are several which Lt. Col. Wilson and I tried to take of the mint - indoors. You will find (if the film is still good) some pictures of personalities you will recognize. Col. Fertig suggests that if you can send us copies he will be glad to have them.

The spectacles belong to Mr. (" Pop ") Mc Carthy, sometime proprietor of the Ohio Lumber Company, SWPA. He has no others and is exceedingly handicapped without them, being unable to shout at people at any distance through inability to recognize them.

Could you have Lt. Wilcox procure two more pairs of glasses for Mr. Mc Carthy identical with the ones enclosed ?

I broke one of my pairs enroute, and would like to have one additional pair, too. Wilcox knows where to get them on Wickham Terrace.

Please accept my respects and convey my regards to my friends there.

I might add that the enclosed letter to my friends the Luxton's contains, as you will see, a deal re: one fruit cake. Col. Fertig got a large slice of the last one, so if you can expedite censorship of this letter, it will contribute greatly to morale.

My dear Mrs. Evans;

I have your letter of 30 January making inquiry concerning the welfare of your husband. I am happy to advise you that he is in fine health, doing a splendid job and has recently been promoted, in recognition of his services, to the grade of Major.

Recently a request was processed through here to increase your allotment from $200 to $300 a month which should shortly be effective.

There is a possibility for infrequent exchange of correspondence with him and I suggest that you write him as often as you care to, enclosing your letters in another envelope addressed to me, and I shall be happy to have them passed on as the opportunity presents itself.

Very sincerely yours,

Courtney Whitney

Dear Colonel Whitney -

Your name was sent to me by my husband - Capt.
J. L. Evans - O-356781 - whose address is as follows - c/o Allied Intelligence Bureau, GHQ, SWPA, APC 500.

He suggested that I write to you if I'd had no letters from him for quite awhile. The last letter I've received was one dated the latter part of November.

Any information you can give me concerning my husband's welfare will be greatly appreciated. He told me not to expect to hear from him as regularly as in the past, so I am prepared for a lapse of several months between letters, but nevertheless, would be very grateful for some confirmation of his well being.

Thank you very much -

Sincerely

I hereby declare that the statements below refer to the insured or C. O. D. parcel described on page 1 of this form.

25 (a) Was the parcel received by you? (b) If C. O. D., were charges paid?

(c) If paid, to whom?

26 If received, were the contents intact?

27 List those articles, if any, which the sender alleged to have inclosed, which were MISSING when the parcel was delivered:

28 List all those articles which were received in a DAMAGED condition. State after each item what the repairs have cost, or will cost, and attach receipted bills or signed estimates from competent dealers or repairmen covering cost of repair.

If articles were rendered worthless and beyond repair, so state, and attach statement from dealer or repairman verifying that fact. If such bills or statements can not be procured, state name and address of dealer consulted, and explain why his signed statement is not furnished:

29 If parcel was not received, have you made inquiry of all persons customarily receiving mail addressed to you without finding trace thereof?

30 Was parcel tendered for delivery to you or your authorized representative and refused?

To whom should indemnity be paid?

(If insured by other than the Post Office Department state by whom, amount of insurance, and whether insurance has been paid)

31 To the best of my knowledge and belief this loss or damage occurred while the insured or C. O. D. parcel was in the mail; and no reimbursement has been received therefrom from any source.

I hereby agree that, in the event that indemnity is paid to me, I will return the full or pro rata amount of indemnity, as may be deemed appropriate and equitable by the Post Office Department, if the lost parcel or its contents, in whole or in part, is subsequently recovered and tendered to me or if the sender as provided by the existing Postal Laws and Regulations, even though the recovered parcel or its contents be in a damaged condition.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ALL POSTMASTERS INVOLVED

EXPEDITE ADJUSTMENT OF INDEMNITY CLAIMS.—ALL POSTMASTERS WHO ARE IN ANY WAY INVOLVED IN THE HANDLING OF INDEMNITY CLAIMS ARE ENJOINED TO GIVE PROMPT ATTENTION TO ALL SUCH CLAIMS AND TO TAKE ANY ACTION REQUIRED OF THEM AS EXPEDITIOUSLY AS POSSIBLE.

POSTMASTER GENERAL.

The sections of the Postal Laws and Regulations cited in these instructions are to the edition of 1940. Section 1384 covers general provisions regarding domestic insured and C. O. D. mail; section 1389 covers domestic insured mail; sections 1387 and 1388 cover domestic O. O. D. mail; sections 1382 and 1389 cover the general policy governing the payment of indemnity.

Read and comply carefully with instructions in the current July Guide under heading "Indemnity for Lost, Riffled, and Damaged Insured and C. O. D. Mail and Failure to Receive Remittances on C. O. D. Mail."

This form should be filled in with pen and ink, typewriter, or indelible pencil.

DO NOT LET THIS DOCUMENT PASS FROM THE CUSTODY OF THE POSTAL SERVICE.

POSTMASTER—MAILING OFFICE

IN EVERY CASE EFFORT MUST BE MADE TO OBTAIN A BILL OR SIGNED STATEMENT FROM THE PERSON WHO SOLD THE ARTICLES TO THE OWNER, SHOWING THEIR VALUE AND DATE OF SALE, WHEN THIS CAN NOT BE OBTAINED, CLAIMANT MUST STATE NAME AND ADDRESS OF THE ONE FROM WHOM PURCHASED AND DATE OF PURCHASE. SEE NOTE ABOVE QUESTION 10 ON REVERSE SIDE.

When claim is started at your office, you will have your declaration and the declaration of the sender completed, and immediately send the form to the postmaster at the office of address. On claims involving insured parcels the name of the sender need not be entered in your certificate when the claim is started at your office. The signature of the sender to his declaration will be sufficient in those instances. The name of the sender must always be stated, however, in your declaration when the claim involves a C. O. D. parcel.

In event the claim was started at the office of address, and this Form 3812 is received by you with the parcel number, name, and address of sender, and address of addressee already filled in on the mailing postmaster's declaration, you will verify the particulars already entered, correcting them when necessary. All in the remaining items from your records, and obtain the declaration of the sender in the regular manner. If it is necessary in your certificate to correct any entries made by the postmaster at the office of address, you will make a marginal notation to that effect on the form. When this form is completed, dispose of it as instructed below under the heading "Disposition of Completed Form."

In claims involving damaged parcels, the sender, in answer to Item 11 on reverse side of this form, or on separate sheet if necessary, should be required to describe in detail the packing and wrapping of the parcel involved showing the kind of container used, that is, whether wood, single or double faced corrugated cardboard, fiberboard, etc.; the kind of cushioning material used, if any, such as excelsior, sawdust, etc., and a general statement as to the quantity of cushioning material used, the manner in which used both in connection with the contents as a whole and the individual articles, and any other information which will enable the Department or postmasters authorized to adjust indemnity claims to determine whether the parcels for which claims are filed were properly prepared for mailing.

In cases involving loss or rifting of domestic insured or C. O. D. parcels, report must also be made on Form 581 or 1519 to the Post Office Inspector in Charge of your Division, as required by section 510, paragraph 4, Postal Laws and Regulations.

POSTMASTER—OFFICE OF ADDRESS

When this Form 3812 is received from the postmaster at the office of mailing with page 1 already completed, you will fill out, postmark, and sign the "Declaration of Postmaster—Office of Address" on page 2, and obtain the declaration of addressee. When this form is completed, dispose of it as instructed below under the heading "Disposition of Completed Form."

As sufficient accurate data, as to mailing particulars and contents of parcels is seldom available at the address office when claims are first instituted, extreme care should be exercised in starting claims at address offices. When the evidence at hand and the circumstances warrant the institution of a claim at your office, you will enter in this "Declaration of Postmaster—Mailing Office" the number of the parcel, the name and address of the sender, and the name and address of the addressee; and at the bottom of that declaration, beneath the space for mailing postmaster's signature, you will write the name of the mailing office; but do not attempt to fill in any other items, and do not sign the mailing postmaster's certificate. The particulars mentioned must be entered before the declaration of the addressee is received, as it is absolutely necessary that a description of the parcel shall appear on the form before the questions relating to it are answered. When the declaration of addressee and declaration of postmaster at office of address have been completed, the form must promptly be sent to the postmaster at the office of mailing for completion. However, unless sufficient information as to particulars of mailing of parcel and contents is available, the claim should be started at the office of mailing.

SENDER, ADDRESSEE, OR OWNER

Penalty for making or using any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement in connection with this claim: Fine of not more than $500 and imprisonment for not more than two years. (See Section 35, Criminal Code of United States.)

This declaration may be made without cost before any post office inspector or other representative of the Post Office Department commissioned by the Postmaster General, or any postmaster or sworn employee of a post office.

designated by the postmaster for the purpose. The impression of the postmarking stamp of the post office or station where it is executed must be affixed, if practicable. However, if preferred, the declaration may be executed before an officer authorized to administer oaths, who will affix his official seal, or if he has no seal, a certificate from a clerk of a court of record, showing that he is duly qualified to administer oaths, must be submitted.

No indemnity can be paid to cover or include the cost, if any, of furnishing this declaration, whether or not indemnity is paid or recovery is made.

The signature of sender and addressee, whenever they appear in this form, should correspond exactly with their names as given in the certificate of the postmaster on page 1. In event the names as given in that certificate are spelled or otherwise inaccurately, the correct name of sender or addressee should be signed, and immediately thereunto in parentheses, should be written "(same as —)" giving the name as entered by the mailing postmaster. The signature is made by mark; its genuineness must be attested by a disinterested witness.

Indemnity for lost, riffled, or damaged insured and C. O. D. parcels is limited to their actual value, allowing for depreciation, or to the actual cost of repairs within the limits prescribed by the Postal Laws and Regulations, according to the fee paid.

No indemnity will be paid for a lost, riffled, or damaged insured or C. O. D. parcel: (1) When application is not made within six months from the date of mailing except in the case of insured mail addressed to the Philippine Islands or in the case of insured or C. O. D. parcels mailed in or addressed to Guam, where the requirement that claims for indemnity be filed within six months from the date of mailing of the parcels has been extended to ten months from the date of mailing; (2) unless lost, riffled, or damaged while in the custody of the Postal Service; (3) when the loss is merely of a consequential nature; (4) when such matter is not lawfully in the mail; (5) where other compensation or reimbursement has been made therefor by the Post Office Department; (6) in a claim on account of damage, if the sender was instructed prior to the date of mailing of the parcel relative to proper packing and indemnity and failed to comply therewith.

DISPOSITION OF COMPLETED FORM

No postmaster should pay any claim chargeable to a lapse of appropriation. The date of mailing of each article within any fiscal year will fix the annual appropriation to which any indemnity covering that article will be chargeable. This appropriation from which claims are paid are valid for the fiscal year for which the appropriations are made, and two full fiscal years thereafter (or in other words for three full fiscal years). Postmasters at central accounting offices will transmit to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Registered Mails, all claims for indemnity received at their offices which are chargeable to lapses of appropriations.

Claims for indemnity covering insured mail addressed to the Philippine Islands or exchanged with Canal Zone, T. B. naval vessels (except receiving ships permanently located at continental ports), and others and entered from any other office of the United States domestic mails, and for both insured and C. O. D. mail exchanged with the United States Naval Operating Base, Guantanamo, Cuba, Guam, Yritani, Manila, and other islands of the Samoan group, shall be transmitted to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Registered Mails, for adjustment, regardless of the date of mailing. The C. O. D. sections with the Philippine Islands, Canal Zone, and naval vessels has been discontinued.

The following statements should be filled out only when the circumstances warrant. See appropriate instructions in the current July Postal Guide relative to (1) waiving the declaration of addressee, (2) disposition to be made of irreparably damaged articles possessing possible salvage value, and (3) requests that claim papers in case of indemnity claims be returned after audit to the Chief Inspector for investigation.

File No.:

Subject:

From: P.R.S.

To: Chief of Staff

Date: 30 Oct 43

1. I recommend assignment of the following-named officer to this Section for duty:

Captain JAMES LAWRENCE EVANS, Jr., M.C. O-356781
3rd Medical Supply Depot
Base Section #3.

2. This officer has been requested by Captain Charles SMITH as a member of his party slated for Philippine service. He is 30 years of age, a surgeon by profession and an amateur radio operator and technician, in which capacity he spent some years in the Naval Reserve. His service is currently rated as superior and he volunteers for active service in the Philippine area. I interviewed him and believe he possesses the necessary qualifications for the service indicated.

3. Apart from the desirability of giving party leaders, as far as possible, groups composed of men of their own selection, I believe that the idea of sending into the Philippine area of American military doctors and surgeons, who volunteer for such service, has distinct advantages to commend it.

Detail of Captain James L. Evans, MD, as recommended above, is approved. This should not be taken as a general policy, however. The arrangements for release of Captain Evans from his present duties should be taken up with the Deputy Chief of Staff, USAFFE.
