In re enemy action in AGUSAN.

FERTIG does not appear to believe that present drive is designed to knock out his AGUSAN defenses. The pattern of enemy action as reported would appear to favor the contrary view, altho Comdr. PARSONS believes FERTIG is strongly entrenched on the upper reaches of the river having commanding positions along the river, inset into rock for air protection--no roads or trails parallel the river banks.

In re enemy action in AGUSAN and LANAQ.

Message discloses that two 500 ton vessels, 1 barge, 4 launches and 3 planes are participating in the enemy action in the BUTUAN Bay area.

Apparent interpretation of Colonel HEDGES' report - enemy action in LANAQ is designed for the dual purpose of training raw enemy troops and forcing guerillas to expend "limited" ammunition.

We have them now sufficiently supplies to permit their prolonged resistance.
