Dear Mr. Ibanes:

General MacArthur has directed me to acknowledge your letter of 19 November and to express his regret that operational duties will prevent him from visiting the little church of which you are in charge in the near future.

He feels that of all of the freedoms restored to the people in liberated areas, none is more important than is the freedom of worship according to one's own conscience and the re-dedication of the churches to that purpose. He desires me to convey to you his earnest hope that the people of your community will derive much spiritual benefit from the restored use of this church as a house of worship without further fear of enemy molestation.

Very sincerely,

1. Transmitted herewith is a letter from Ciriacio Ibanez, a layman, who maintains the sanctuary of Our Lady of Lourdes. The church is quite visible on the ABUYOG-BAYBAY Road, approximately eight (8) miles west of ABUYOG.

2. Prior to 1941 Mr Ibanez reports that he held some government post in TACLOBAN. He seems to be a great patriot and apparently has accurate information regarding conditions on LEYTE during the Japanese occupation.

I gladly donated the materials. I would

En verdad te digo: Que no me estorbes en el curso de mis santas y nobles aspiraciones para con mi Dios, pueblo, y amigos, para evitar arrepentimiento. Distribuyendo mi programa de gobierno ya tengo el 60 por ciento del electorado. En explicandolo al pueblo, tendré el 70 por ciento. En disparando mis reservadas fuerzas financieras en las postremerías electorales, tendré el 90 por ciento de todo el electorado. Desde la creación del mundo, jamás ha habido un apostolado mas grande para el pueblo leyteño, como el apostolado que enarbolo que declarará reo de muerte al que lo menospreciase. Oye mis discursos y te convencerás. No ataco ni desprecio a nadie. Solo cantaré las verdades y las lagrimas de un pueblo que gime y clama alivio de sus sufrimientos. El sectario no debe ir contra mi; si quiera por respeto al pueblo, al cual rendiré con valor y heroismo incomparables el último tributo de mis desinteresados servicios. El católico que va contra mi, es traidor a su propia conciencia, porque llevo el estandarte de los buenos deseos en favor de la sacrosanta fe catolica.

MEMORANDUM:
Colonel C. Whitney
G-3 Section, GHQ

SUBJECT: Air Ports in Bohol Province

This is compliance with Colonel C. Whitney's verbal instructions - - a report on Bohol airfields.

(a) Ubay Landing field located 6 kms. west of the municipality of Ubay, Bohol, along the Provincial Road. Size 30m by 1500 m. Runway: Runs from SW to NE. Construction materials: In soft places at least 3 layers of coral rocks paved down by road rollers were spread over. Ditches along the sides were dug to permit drainage. Some bamboo groves along both sides on the northern end. A small forest bordering the southern end, just across the provincial road. I cannot tell if this field can take on our heavy planes. It has never been neither by us nor by the enemy. In August 1943 the enemy ordered the planting of bamboos and trees to render it unserviceable, but the damage done is not serious according to reliable information. It, however, needs repairs before it can be efficiently used. It can be extended to twice its size being located on a relatively flat ground.

(b) The landing field at barrio Colonia 12 kms north of the municipality of Carmen is 30 m by about 100 m. The rocks spread over it were taken mostly from river beds. Lt. Col. A. J. Grimes, then CO of Bohol forces told me this Colonia Landing Field was intended for fighter planes only. Like that of Ubay this field has never been used. Direction: SW to NE.

(c) The landing field of Tagbilaran is about 30 m by about 1100 m. This field is still under the enemy's control and use. The surface is hard and can positively take on any size of plane. Full records of this and the two landing fields above described are with the District Engineer's Office of Bohol Province or with the CO of the guerilla forces of Bohol. I suggest the latter be contacted.

(d) I have been informed that an airport has been constructed on Panglao Island, south of Bohol, by the Japanese. This field ought to be as strongly consistant as that of Tagbilaran. (see Par. -c-) It is on a rocky foundation. No definite description is available.

(e) The Ubay and Colonia ports - (a) and (b) above. Construction of these ports were started on January 1942 and terminated about the middle of March the same year. The airport at Tagbilaran was already in existance and actually used before the war, but was widened and lengthened during the months were constructing the Ubay and Colonia airports. I was during this time, the Executive Officer of the Bohol Forces with Lt. Col. A. J. Grimes as my CO.

s/ RAMON D. GAVIOLA
t/ RAMON D. GAVIOLA
Maj., Inf.

N.B. As of Nov. 7, this year, only the municipality of Tagbilaran, capital of Bohol, was occupied by the enemy where there were between 100 & 150 men and officers. All enemy troops were withdrawn from the rest of the municipalities, including the manganese mines at Guindulman where all installations were destroyed by them before leaving the place.

AT HIS HEADQUARTERS, 10:00 A.M., NOVEMBER 16, 1944.

General MacArthur very kindly greeted me with warmth and cordiality, and inquired in brief passing about Colonel Gador.

Sparkling with his characteristic forcefulness and beauty of speech -- far beyond my poor powers to reproduce here with any justice to him -- the General began by recalling that the magnificent courage, the epic resistance and the superb fighting shown and put up by the Filipinos on Bataan and Corregidor and won for them the respect and admiration of the world, and more important still the right to political and social equality in the fraternity of nations.

Before Bataan, the Philippines, he said, was assured of political parity with the rest of the nations: after the baptism of blood and fire on Bataan, however, the Filipinos have now undeniably attained, in the short space of three bitter years, a basis of equality in world opinion with any race or people, a unique and unparalleled achievement in history which might have required a hundred years to attain by normal processes.

The General revealed he intends to recommend to the President of the United States that, upon the re-conquest of Manila, the Philippine Republic be proclaimed as soon as possible.

He went on to disclose that it shall be his guiding policy to remove from power those Filipinos, no matter how great may be their wealth or powerful their influence, who went out of their way in helping or favoring the Japanese during their atrocious stay in the islands, and to turn them over, for trial and punishment, to the Government of the Philippines.

Once the Philippine Republic is launched and established, the General continued, the Filipinos cannot and must not rest on their laurels but must strive and work the harder, with great dignity and poise, to conserve the democratic government and way of life they had so dearly bought in priceless blood and gallant lives. On his part, he emphasized, the Filipinos can very well rest assured that it shall be his constant concern and endeavor to help promote, in every way he can, the interests and welfare of the people and government of the new Republic. At all times, he said, his services and experience shall be available to the Philippine Republic in the task of establishing and maintaining an Army adequate to her defense needs within the limitations of her economy.

The General then asked me to acquaint our people back home or wherever I may happen to be with his foregoing policies and plans.

Standing up to indicate the end of our conference, he concluded by congratulating me personally for what he considered a significant part I had played in the resistance movement against the Japanese in the guerillas.

MEMORANDUM OF MY CONFERENCE WITH GENERAL DOUG-LAS MACARTHUR AT HIS HEADQUARTERS, 10:00 A.M.,
NOVEMBER 16, 1944

General MacArthur very kindly greeted me with warmth and cordiality, and inquired in brief passing about Colonel Gader.

Sparkling with his characteristic forcefulness and beauty of speech -- far beyond my poor powers to reproduce here with any justice to him -- the General began by recalling that the magnificent courage, the epic resistance and the superb fighting shown and put up by the Filipinos on Bataan and Corregidor had won for them the respect and admiration of the world, and more important still the right to political and social equality in the fraternity of nations.

Before Bataan, the Philippines, he said, was assured ~~only~~ of political parity with the rest of the nations: after the baptism of blood and fire on Bataan, however, the Filipinos have now undeniably attained, in the short space of three bitter years, ^{a basis of} ~~complete~~ ~~social~~ ~~individual~~ equality ^{in world opinion} with any race or people ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~world~~ ~~today~~, a unique and unparalleled achievement in history which ^{might} ~~they would~~ have required a hundred years to attain by normal processes.

~~The Negroes in America, the General pointed out,~~

would need at least a century of accelerated individual progress and development before they can gain the honor and right to be treated as social equals in the exclusive halls of the world's civilized society.

The General revealed he intends to recommend to the President of the United States that, upon the reconquest of Manila, the Philippine Republic be immediately proclaimed. ^{as soon as possible.} ~~He expects the Philippine Republic, through its Congress convened soon thereafter in extraordinary session by its President, to declare war immediately against Japan, and to support heartily, with all the resources at its command, the United Nations effort to bring about the complete and decisive defeat of the enemy.~~

He went on to disclose that it shall be his guiding policy to ^{remove from power} ~~seize~~ all those Filipinos, no matter how great may be their wealth or powerful their influence, who went out of their way in helping or favoring the Japanese during their atrocious stay in the islands, and to turn them over, for trial and punishment, to the Government of the Philippines, ~~firmly believing that the privilege and duty to pass judgment over these Filipinos lie with the Filipinos themselves, not with the Americans.~~

and must not rest on their laurels but must strive and work the harder, with great dignity and poise, to conserve the democratic government and way of life they had so dearly bought in priceless blood and gallant lives. On his part, he emphasized, the Filipinos can very well rest assured that it shall be his constant concern and endeavour to help promote, in every way he can, the interests and welfare of the people and government of the new Republic, ~~safe-guarding them from any exploitation of self-seeking partisan groups in America.~~ At all times, he said, his services and experience shall be available to the Philippine Republic in the task of establishing and maintaining an Army adequate to her defense needs within the limitations of her economy.

The General then asked me ~~to use my influence to~~ acquaint our people back home or wherever I may happen to be with his foregoing policies and plans ~~and to win their approval and support behind them.~~

Standing up to indicate the end of our conference, he concluded by congratulating me personally for what he considered a significant part I had played in the resistance movement against the Japanese in the guerrillas, ~~and expressing finally his desire to see Colonel Gader~~ ~~one of these days.~~

The C in C has directed me to ascertain that the sailboat on which 4 U.S. pilots were brought by members of the guerilla forces from Southern Luzon to Taaloban be filled, prior to its departure, with arms, ammunition, clothing, rations and other available supplies for the leader of the guerilla forces responsible for the rescue and evacuation of this personnel.

2. Attached three requisitions cover the supplies which it is estimated the sailboat has cargo capacity to handle and which are urgently required by the forces of the interior. It would be appreciated if these supplies could be made available promptly as the vessel is being held here pending its loading.

✓ "JUAN CONCON OF GENERAL AUDITING OFFICE, HAS NOT SURRENDERED NOR SERVED UNDER THE JAPANESE ADMINISTRATION. HE IS HERE AND AVAILABLE FOR DUTY. AQUILINO CALIXTO, PROVINCIAL TREASURER, LEFT FOR MANILA LAST 1942 BEFORE INVASION OF THIS PROVINCE, LEAVING HIS OFFICE TO HIS ASSISTANT. SINCE THEN HE HAS BEEN UNHEARD OF.

✓ DALMACIO RAMOS HAS BEEN PROVINCIAL AUDITOR SINCE REESTABLISHMENT CIVIL GOVERNMENT FREE BOHOL, THEN CAPTURED BY ENEMY LAST JUNE DURING MOPPING OPERATIONS, BROUGHT TO TAGBILARAN BUT ABLE TO ESCAPE LAST OCTOBER. HE IS SERVING AGAIN AS OUR PROVINCIAL AUDITOR."

2. Yesterday the following query was received from Major Inginiero:

"WE PLAN TO SEND TO LEYTE TO CONFER WITH PRESIDENT OSMENA ON IMPORTANT MATTERS EX-GOVERNOR CELESTINO GALLARES AND ASSISTANT FISCAL VICTORIANO TIROL. THEY WILL REPRESENT OUR CIVIL GOVERNMENT. REQUEST ADVISE IF IDEA IS FEASIBLE."

3. It is believed that all of the persons named can proceed from Bohol to Baybay by native craft and from there to Tacloban by road. It is advisable, however, that all proceed at the same time. It is accordingly recommended that this matter be again referred to G-5 for determination of the advisability of arranging for the movement of all to this headquarters.

1. In further reference to my C/N of yesterday concerning the procedure followed by this section in the routing of Philippine radio communications, I strongly recommend against any action to place this activity on the formal basis providing A.G. administrative action on Philippine communications. The work of this Section will be concluded within a relatively short time as the several Philippine areas go under Army commanders in accordance with existing policy. It would take the Adjutant General, on the other hand, some time to sufficiently familiarise himself with the details thereof to take appropriate action thereon - a degree of familiarization hardly obtainable within the time left to complete the job. Meanwhile certain confusion would be inevitable.

2. I believe that the desire of the Assistant Chief of Staff of G-5 for formality (of which we fortunately have been burdened with little throughout these developments), can be achieved to his full satisfaction by following the procedure outlined by you the other day, viz, reference of matters pertaining to G-5's interest to the latter by carrier note through you, and I recommend no further change be made. I assure you that such formality will be closely adhered to.

1. Request clarification of the relative responsibilities of G-3 Operations and G-5 in the matter of Philippine Civil Affairs. The matter immediately involved deals with the orientation of action for the consideration of the C in C and/or the Commonwealth Government with respect to the printing and appropriation of emergency currencies in the several "free" areas of the Philippines.
2. At the time PRS was dissolved by GHQ Staff Memorandum No. 18, and its responsibilities and functions integrated in the several Staff sections of GHQ, it was my understanding from the Chief of Staff that the matter of Civil Affairs would be handled by G-5, Supply by G-4, Intelligence by G-2, Personnel problems by G-1, and Operations by G-3. Following the desires of the Chief of Staff expressed at that time, I have occasionally entered into Civil Affairs but only when I felt my background of experience with the complexities of the Philippine situation would be of value in the orientation of a sound course and then, on matters relating to the Civil Government, I have invariably processed my views through G-5.
3. For the most part, however, following my understanding I have merely referred Philippine communications bearing upon Civil Affairs, Supply, Intelligence and Personnel to the appropriate Staff section for any action indicated, being ever ready to give my personal views if desired.
4. The foregoing procedure does not appear to conform with the understanding of the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-5, and clarification is essential to the proper assumption of responsibilities in the premises.
5. If it is desired that G-3 assume and carry the responsibility for Civil Affairs in the several Philippine areas concerned it is of course prepared to do so.

1. No clarification of the relief responsibilities of G-3 Operations and G-5 in the matter of Philippine Civil Affairs is required by this section.
2. a. Staff Memorandum No. 40, 28 September 1944, is clear and explicit as to the functions of G-5.
b. General Order No. 9, 28 September 1944, established the G-5 Section charged with Civil Affairs and Psychological Warfare.
c. Standing Operating Procedure No. 26, 9 October 1944, which was superseded by Standing Operating Procedure No. 27, 15 November 1944, deals entirely with Civil Affairs in the liberated areas.
3. All matters pertaining to guerrillas and civilian officials in "free" Philippine areas have been handled in the past I believe by the Commander in Chief, Chief of Staff, PRS and later G-3 Operations. These duties have never been transferred to the G-1 nor the G-5 Sections.
4. The printing and appropriation of emergency currencies in the several "free" areas of the Philippines has always been handled by the Commander in Chief and the President of the Philippines through PRS and later G-3 Operations. This function has never been transferred to the G-5 Section and clearly was not done so by Staff Memorandum No. 40.
5. On June 2, that portion of PRS which was transferred to G-1 consisted of Dr. Hayden's activities which is now called the Files and Study Section. This portion of PRS had no assignment related to emergency currency. Dr. Hayden had no responsibility other than Advisor on Philippine Affairs. Staff Memorandum No. 18 was issued on June 2 and G-5 was created on 28 September following. Obviously the Chief of Staff could not have assigned Civil Affairs in "free" Philippine areas to G-5 before it was created.
6. When PRS was absorbed by the various staff sections 2 June 1944, I requested that G-1 be placed on the distribution list for guerrilla radio messages. This request was turned down by the Chief of Staff.
7. The only messages related to "free" Philippine areas ever sent to G-1 prior to 28 September or to G-5 were for information only and never for action.
8. Reference to cable from Peralda 13 October, the facts are:

This section was estimating the Victory Pesos required for the redemption of emergency currencies. G-3 was requested to obtain the necessary data from Military District Commanders. On 14 October, after I was en route Leyte, Colonel Whitney informally gave Lieutenant Colonel Rauh a cable from Peralda listing emergency issues. It was an information copy now in our files with no action required from G-5 and there was no discussion by Colonel Whitney as to who would reply to the radio. With Colonel Rauh were Captain Hutchison and Lieutenant Commander Cobb. Prior to this time we had asked G-3 Operations to stop the issue of emergency currencies on A Day. G-3 replied it was obviously impossible because Victory Pesos could not be made available to guerrillas until the period of liberation.

1. Supply vessel now enroute to contact Major Volckmann (north of Lingayen Gulf area) has on board fourteen complete radio units, complete weather station, two sabotage teams (with 3,000 pounds of demolitions), two American intelligence officers with 35 tons of supplies (mostly arms and ammunition as requisitioned).

Radio Communications

There are now 27 radio positions in operation in Luzon, additional to approximately 40 radio units (including Volckmann's shipment) enroute to strategic positions. With our control here in Tacloban we are infinitely stronger in our ability of direct emergency contact to most all net stations as established. This corrects the threat of loss of any entire net due to the fall or compromise of its local control station.

Under this program we should have fairly satisfactory coverage by "D" day for Luzon operations.

Sabotage Provisions

Upon arrival of Volckmann's shipment we will have 7 sabotage teams either at or enroute to strategic points in Central Luzon (a sabotage team is composed of six officers and men trained as saboteurs with 1500 pounds of explosives, mostly made up in individual charges).

Teams are now enroute through Central Luzon to Bulacan, Rizal, and southern Tayabas (within striking distance of the roads and railroad to the Bicol and the Mauban and Antimonan Roads).

General instructions have been issued only to take positions on strategic routes - all team commanders having been instructed to await specific direction for any sabotage action.

2. These dispositions will be completed prior to "D" day M-1 operation, and thereafter should provide the Sixth Army with an element of interior strength of considerable value to the main effort.

Date: 16 November 1944

1. Herewith is a file of stories prepared by one "Yay" formerly of the DMHM (General Romulo's newspaper) addressed to General Romulo. I have not as yet referred them to him. As a newspaperman by civilian profession you will recognize in these papers some brilliant writing much of which would be of interest to the C in C because of the conditions therein dramatically portrayed but he of course would not have the time to go over them.

2. I thought that it would be of interest to you. While unquestionably written under literary license the basis for the information is probably correct as there is considerable supporting evidence already in the files. Of particular interest are his writings in regard to the enemy methods of torture in Fort Santiago.

3. Before any of this is released both censorship and the C in C's policies should be carefully considered then care should be taken not to blow up the activities of any one Central Luzon guerilla group to the inferential discredit of others. From the information available there is much to be said both for and against Marking's particular group. The writer of these papers of course is a member of that group and as can be seen is intensely loyal to Marking, its leader. I would like to discuss the proper disposition of these papers after you have gone over them.

SONNET
WRITTEN UPON HEARING OF THE BOMBING OF TOKYO

Advance, ye guardians of democracy,
Ye eagles of the Stars and Stripes, advance!
Ye western lions, roar and tear the lance
Of Mars to end ambitious fantasy.
Shoot 'em, give 'em the works in land and sea.
Drop 'em, give quick the three- and four-ton bombs.
Shoot fast and hear the Japs' retreating drums
Beat like a poignant prophecy: I see
The city crumbling with Asiatic dreams,
Fool's dreams that die with thick, gray smoke in air;
I see our Freedom's smile: and triumph gleams
O'er Tokyo's flames-- inferno of despair...
And when bombs fall in Tozjo's broken line,
Can Mac Arthur, OUR Mac, be far behind?

Subject: Further in re Assemblyman LOPEZ of CEBU

From: C. W.

To: C in C
Thru: D C/S

Date: 16 November 1944

1. LOPEZ called on me yesterday afternoon while you were tied up with Admiral KINCAID.

2. I find:

- (a) That he left CEBU in December 1942 and has never since returned.
- (b) That he came here from BOHOL with Colonel GADOR (the senior Philippine Army officer you endeavored to get to attend a unification conference in Southern NEGROS without success, despite radio messages and a personal directive). LOPEZ appears to be a close supporter of GADOR.
- (c) That he is primarily interested in the collaboration question, concerning which he had had a long conference with President OSMENA yesterday.
- (d) That on this question he feels that the issue is one tightly drawn between the people who went to the hills and those who remained in the cities, rather than just those continuing to occupy public office.
- (e) That he has advised President OSMENA that he should not take a categorical position on the collaboration question for fear of criticism arising from the post-surrender activity of his two sons, Nick and Sergio Jr. (In this he apparently has no idea, as many Filipinos do not, that moral courage is essential to strong leadership).

3. That is about the substance of his remarks.

MEMO TO: Col. Whitney

1. The following information from Advance USAFFE at Leyte, was sent to me by Lt. Colonel Taylor:
2. "Conference with General Stivers today who stated that all former members of Philippine Constabularies should be disposed of in the same manner as former Philippine Army personnel. Further that any civilians who had no former military connection and who were serving or had served with recognized guerrilla units, should be processed and disposed of in the same manner as Philippine Army personnel. You will have to check carefully to make sure that they served with a recognized guerrilla unit and were not simply lone bandits on occasion or members of Vigilante Committees who occasionally harrassed Japanese Forces. Suggest you check with Colonel Whitney, GHQ, in each case to positively determine their status before accepting them."
3. I suggest that instances mentioned above be checked through the AG, GHQ, to AG, USAFFE.

Subject: Assemblyman Pedro Lopez of Cebu

From: C.W.

To: C in C
Thru: D C/S

Date: 15 November 1944

1. Our first contact with Assemblyman Lopez was in November 1943 at the time we were endeavoring to get Cushing and Governor Abellana of Cebu to visit Fertig's headquarters for the purpose of working out a plan of assistance to the Cebu forces and civil government. Cushing was unable to attend the projected conference but Assemblyman Lopez went with Governor Abellana. Nothing particularly constructive developed out of this conference. Assemblyman Lopez at about that time endeavored to get Commander Parsons to intercede with you to the end that he, Lopez, might be brought to GHQ for conference. On 15 March 1944 Governor Abellana and Assemblyman Lopez sent you the following message:

"WE SOLICIT EARLY PERSONAL INTERVIEW WITH YOU, PRESIDENT QUEZON ON MATTERS TOO IMPORTANT, DELICATE, DANGEROUS TO BE WIRED BUT BE KNOWN SOONEST TO YOU."

2. Your reply to the above message was to the effect that the matters which they wanted to communicate to you and President Quezon should be addressed to you by writing under seal.

3. I just recently received a letter addressed to Commander Parsons, under date of 20 April 1944, from Governor Abellana (since reported killed) which apparently was written in compliance with your reply and appears to disclose just what Governor Abellana and Assemblyman Lopez had in mind when they sought evacuation for personal interview. This letter is attached hereto.

4. While there is some evidence suggestive that Assemblyman Lopez has been mixed up in factional conflicts both in Cebu and Bohol there is nothing to indicate that he has been disloyal to the cause. To the contrary all evidence appears to support the proposition that he has been intensely loyal throughout and worked according to his private convictions as to the best solution for local problems.

April 20th, 1944

My dear Commander Parsons:

I am writing you this letter desperately hoping that it will reach you.

During the latter part of last February, I sent radio messages to General MacArthur, President Quezon and Vice-Pres. Osmeña soliciting for a personal conference on very important matters of which they must have personal and truthful knowledge.

On the first week of this month, April, General MacArthur answered back requesting me to place in a sealed letter all matters referred to in my radio message.

In compliance with the General's aforementioned request, I will endeavor to put forth herein certain important matters with the request that they be relayed to the General for his information and solution.

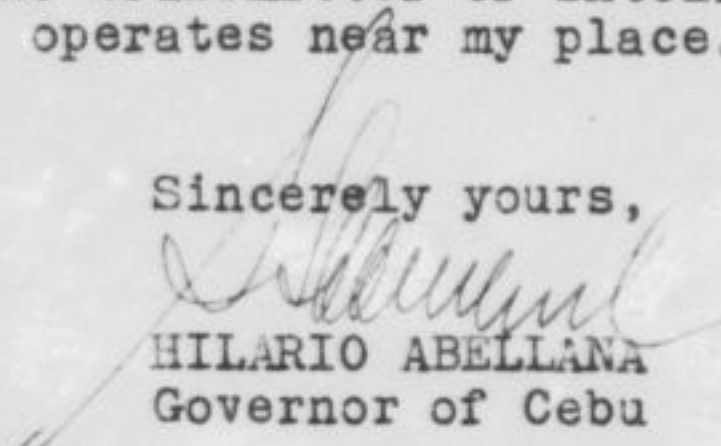

- (1)- With the march of time, the civilians are more and more acutely feeling the scarcity of food;
- (2)- The HAVES are better off because although the prices are sky-high, they can manage to buy some; but the middle and lower classes are in a pitiful condition, they are almost staring hunger and starvation in the face.
- (3)- The Bohol Military and Civil authorities have adopted a close door policy on their foodstuffs to the great suffering of civilians in Cebu.
- (4)- The general attitude of the Bohol Area Command is hostile to Cebu, and the Cebu Area Command is aware of this.
- (5)- There is rift between Cebu and Bohol on intelligence work.
- (6)- There is going on an exodus of evacuation from the City of Cebu; already 50 per cent of the population has evacuated. Cause: They believe the coming soon of the Americans. It would be terrible to dissappoint them.
- (7)- Civilians are dying fast from Army actions everywhere; both from Jap and Filipino Armies. The more delayed is the aid, the more civilians will die.
- (8)- There are many victims out of the Courts Martial. I do not know whether their existence is legal, but they are the dread of the civilians.
- (9)- The policies in the various Island Commands are not uniformed. So that, civilians travelling from island to island are at a loss as to what to attain.
- (10)- It is very important that there should be established in the Philippines a Centralized Command near the various Islands Commands to control their actions and policies.

(11)- The mental attitude of the Guerrilla is adverse and hostile to the civilians residing in occupied areas. This is so not only in Cebu but in other Islands as well. This is what I fear most. Unless adequate measures are adopted before hand, I fear that when the aid comes there is going to be a double massacre of civilians both by the Japs and by the Guerrillas.

Herewith, I am enclosing some military informations of the enemy in Cebu which may be of interest to SWPA.

In order to be able to send other messages with secrecy, I request that I be allowed to use the transmitter of Intelligence Gerardo Sanchez (AIB), who more often operates near my place.

Sincerely yours,

HILARIO ABELLANA

2. Of particular interest is the description given of the interior strength of our position in Central Luzon - reflecting as it does the views of one who has had no previous knowledge of the Philippine development.

3. The recommendation that loyal effort in Luzon be unified and a definite chain of command established is a recurring one that has originated from many sources. At first blush it appears a wise course, but the practical difficulty lies in the fact that any officer given such command would be immobilized to a restricted area due to the great distances between the several sections and units and intervening enemy dispositions. As a consequence he would be forced to depend upon radio communication for direction and control. This can just as well be done by this headquarters, with the added security existing to radio control outside of Luzon.

Captain Buracher,

I am hoping that this letter will reach you, and in time to do some good. I had planned making the trip in place of writing but realized that my presence would only jeopardize the success of the venture.

Since arriving here, as you can imagine, I have seen much to amaze me. The situation is very favorable to our forces. In a week's time I have travelled throughout much of southern Luzon. Most of that travel was performed during the daytime. I am enclosing a few items you may find of interest. Will you please hold them for me after giving them proper circulation.

You might tell the pilots of the planes who looked for me on the 22nd that I was watching them but was unable to attract their attention.

Here is some information for pilots finding themselves in my position. Most all sailboats here are friendly, 99½%. Even Laguna de Bay has many friendly boats. In the event of a landing in the woods, get clear of the plane in a hurry. If not discovered by nightfall seek a secluded Filipino's house. Stay off of any main road. (There are very few of them). When contact is made (and in south Luzon) ask for General Umali. He is the leader of the PQOG (President Quezon's Own Guerillas).

As I said before the situation here is favorable but could be much more so. The guerillas are for the most part well organized but lack unity. General Umali while a little short at military strategy because of no previous experience along those lines has an organizing genius and has approximately 7,000 men with rifles under his command. The rest of the men are also very desirous of fighting but have no arms. The lack of unity is the product of many factors. The biggest one is lack of proper communications facilities. Another one is the lack of a definite order from HQ's establishing the chain of command.

The problem assumes serious proportions because it hampers much of the work (some of Umali's intelligence data has been intercepted by other organizations and destroyed). There has been blood shed between organizations and in many instances it has been suspected that rival units have actually informed Japs of the others movements.

Umali lacks good radio gear. He is going to try to contact R23 on the next strike on 6900 KCS to give you a little target designation. Were he to have some of the radio gear out of one of our planes he could do better. If possible drop as much of the following gear, by parachute, as you can:

1. Radio and Batteries
2. Target designation maps to simplify his transmissions.
3. Medicine (Atabrine, Sulfa, Bandages and the like).
4. Shoes
5. Ammunition .45 and .30 Cal.
6. Cigarettes.

Have them dropped just south of Bayuyungan at the northwest corner of Lake Taal.

CAPTAIN BURACHER PERSONAL

Dear Captain,

Getting off this island is going to be somewhat difficult. If we are able to contact you, seaplane facilities would be feasible. It is very possible that I may have others to go with me; so if you receive a request for three C5's do not be alarmed. If only the radio situation were better.

Please try to ease the tension as regards my family. I hope to go to the mountains and stay snug until your next visit. What an experience. I actually feel that I have done some good here talking to the people. I would like to do more toward aiding the military situation; but I feel that if my letter to you and one I am writing to the Army representative on another island are given consideration in time things will be improved.

Yours,

Bill Lamb

1. Information received, as of September 17, 1944, from our radio position in Northern Palawan discloses that Drs. Wade and Hanks, with their wives, were at that time to be interned at Corca.

2. If Dr. Hanks is in fact interned at the point indicated it would be dangerous to try to get any message through to him at this time. I suggest therefore that the letter of Mrs. Hanks' sister be held in abeyance without action at this time.

1. Captain Rosenquist has been visiting me for the last few days from Colonel Fertig's headquarters and I have enjoyed talking to him concerning his experiences and his work. While he had no opportunity to do the job originally intended for him he has undoubtedly done an excellent job in other lines and has most certainly gained a lot of valuable experience.

2. Although it is not strictly within my province I thought I would suggest to you the matter of his promotion to the grade of Major. He has been out here now for about six months and should have adequate time in grade to satisfy the regulatory requirements which in any case, as you know, are not as strictly applied to officers out here as they are to officers in the rear areas.

3. This suggestion is for your consideration. I should be glad to make my recommendation if you wish me to do so but that seems hardly necessary.

Captain Rosenquist requested that I write a letter to Colonel Fertig outlining your policies in re the development of interior power to support our offensive operations. I had intended to write Fertig a note, but merely one of greeting as I endeavor to do with every ingoing mail. Attached letter however goes much further. In it is not only discussed certain of your policies but your instructions to Fertig through Rosenquist are extensively quoted as well. I have done this to give added emphasis and clarity to my statement of such policies. I believe Fertig needs orientation in those matters, concerning which he has appeared somewhat confused in past.

Because of its nature the letter is submitted herewith for your instruction on the advisability of its dispatch or any modification desired.

1. Reference Colonel Whitney's dispatch direct to 6th Army, it was obviously motivated by an intelligent desire for speed, in which I entirely concur! However, I suggest that in future dispatches, he co-ordinate with Colonel Craig and the Adv. Ech. G-2, a group functioning at Adv. Ech. GHQ, for just such items; at any rate, a "joint" dispatch, if any, was indicated. We have worked with G-2, 6th Army, for a long time.

2. Items "a" and "c" are clearly Leyte operational items, and Craig would have dispatched them immediately to G-2, 6th Army; item "b" is primarily of interest to 5th Air Force and 3rd Fleet, and quickest dispatch thereto was indicated; items "d" to "i" are clearly destined for Adv. ATIS, a GHQ controlled Japanese language unit, attached to 6th Army. Ergo: Co-ordinate with Colonel Craig, Adv. Ech. G-2, SWPA; both staff officers will profit from such liaison, with my paternal blessing.

Top Col Whitney's dispatch dated

General Chambers:-

I just received a bag of intelligence material from the Leyte Forces. As I could not determine the documents of immediate value to the combat purposes of the Fifth Army I decided it best to process them as outlined in my attached letter. Suggest that you send a copy thereof to General Willenby and explain the reasons for my action to him. The campaign to clear Leyte is moving rapidly and I felt that the delay incident to processing these papers through G-2, G-1 & G-3 might work to the disadvantage of the Army responsible for the operation. I am sure that he will understand and confirm to the action I took -

Nothing new since my report yesterday - except that it is hotter than hell.

1. Herewith attached is a list of American airmen recently shot down during air operations in the Philippines and now under the care and protection of our guerilla units. In it are obviously listed only those who have established contact with one of our radio positions - many more are undoubtedly under similar protection but yet to be heard from.

2. It is an impressive list growing to increasing proportions and is in addition to some 450 Americans already evacuated after having received, over a long period similar care and protection as well as some 150 American POW escapees.

3. The picture reflects the underlying loyalty of the masses of the Filipino people - a militant loyalty in defiance of enemy threats of severe reprisal for such action.

1. Herewith is a copy of the President's Executive Order, just received, in re the investigation of alleged acts of disloyalty.

2. I had previously forwarded, pursuant to your direction, the draft of Letter of Instructions to a commission to be appointed to conduct the investigation, which draft had been requested by the President and which you approved in principle. This does not appear to have been favorably considered.

3. By the terms of attached Executive Order the President leaves to the members of the "Board of Inquiry", at best of no great ability, the shaping of a basic policy to govern in the handling of this important matter instead of seizing the opportunity personally to re-state and revitalize fundamental principles deprived the people under enemy occupation. He has thus passed up the opportunity to assume strong and immediate democratic leadership through which he could have gone far to rally and solidify all the people the better to accomplish the war task ahead and reconstruction thereafter.

4. It is unfortunate that the matter has been approached in the form in which this Executive Order is couched. It is a cold, unimaginative legal rather than an appealing human document. As such it will be of interest to members of the Board of Inquiry and to lawyers seeking legal loopholes for guilty clients but not to the masses of the people. As a State paper its patent weaknesses will insure that it does not live as a document of current and historical importance.

2. The bearer of this report is Captain Rosenquist, Fertig's Acting G-2, who was sent up about five months ago by G-2, GHQ, in connection with POW matters, and who has been dispatched here by Colonel Fertig with considerable intelligence material.

3. Captain Rosenquist is about to leave on the return trip to Colonel Fertig's headquarters. I believe it would be a good thing if you would speak to him for a few minutes prior to his departure and send a personal message of greeting to Colonel Fertig. UNITED STATES FORCES IN THE PHILIPPINES

In the Field
7 November 1944

1. SUMMARY OF THE ENEMY SITUATION: See Maps A & B.

a. MINDANAO as a Whole: The Island of MINDANAO is being divided into a forward and a rear area for purposes of discussion, the forward area comprising all territory N of a line running E and W from LIANGA (SURIGAO) to, but not including, CAGAYAN (MISAMIS ORIENTAL), and the rear area comprising the remainder of the Island. As of 30 October 1944 enemy strength in MINDANAO was estimated as follows:

AGUSAN.....	350
BUKIDNON.....	4,400
COTABATO.....	16,000
DAVAO.....	25,000
LANAO.....	500
MISAMIS OCCIDENTAL.....	100
MISAMIS ORIENTAL.....	3,500
SURIGAO.....	1,800
ZAMBOANGA.....	5,700
Total	57,350

DECLASSIFIED PER JCS LTR OF
20 AUG 75

b. Enemy Activity in Forward Area: Enemy garrisons as of 30 October were located as follows:

AGUSAN
NASIPIT.....	150
BUTUAN.....	60
MISAMIS ORIENTAL
TALISAYAN.....	100
ANAKAN.....	50
SURIGAO
SURIGAO TOWN.....	200
MABUHUAY.....	500
ANAMAR.....	250
BADAS.....	100
MADRID.....	400
TANDAG.....	100
Total	1,910

Garrisons at NASIPIT, BUTUAN, TANDAG and MADRID are at present confined or being attacked by guerrilla troops of the 113th and 114th Regts, of the 110th Division. The enemy garrison at ANAKAN was reported as having moved to CAGAYAN by barge. At present these garrisons are on the defensive as a result of the orders from the Headquarters of the Tenth Military District to confine and eliminate them. These guerrillas can contain the enemy by land, but the sea approaches remain open to him; by the use of barges and motor launches the Japs can, therefore, freely move their troops. The enemy garrisons are limited in their function to very short patrols. There are four airfields in the forward area: At SURIGAO, BADAS, MALPOK (near BUTUAN) and ANAKAN (near GINOOG). These are fighter strips, but they are not in use.

c. Enemy Activity in Rear Area: Since the first of September the Japs have been concentrating on a strong defense of the BUKIDNON VALLEY area, including the SAYRE HIGHWAY leading to DAVAO, COTABATO, and CAGAYAN seaports. Indications were that the Japs moved many troops S (7,000 from SURIGAO during the months of August and September) to establish a highly mobile inland reserve straddling the N, S and W approaches to the above named ports. Enemy troops are therefore in a position rapidly to reinforce strategic points as these are threatened except in AGUSAN and SURIGAO. The most recent troop movement was that to the city of KABACAN (COTABATO) of approximately 8,000 troops. This movement may account for the sudden drop of 8,000 troops in the strength estimates for BUKIDNON. Besides the movement of 120 truck loads of troops to the N along the SAYRE HIGHWAY, the enemy continues to move troops to the S. According to a PW from the 41st Regt, 30th Division, captured at CARAGARA (LEYTE) 31 October, the 41st arrived at CAGAYAN 24 October from the S and left CAGAYAN on three unidentified destroyers 26 October, arriving at ORMOC (LEYTE) on 27 October. In DAVAO PROVINCE the tendency has been to bivouac away from the city, from military installations and other bombing targets; such troops are concentrated in areas to the W of DAVAO CITY near MT APO. No explanation can now be given for the increase in troop strength (an increase of 3,600 during the month of October) in ZAMBOANGA, all concentrated in the vicinity of ZAMBOANGA CITY. Guerrillas occupy or control over three-fourths of this province.

d. Installations, Fortifications, Supplies:

(1) Roads and Trails: See Maps C & D. When still in control of the AGUSAN and SURIGAO areas, the enemy improved the MAYGATASAN TRAIL, thus providing an outlet from BUTUAN via the AGUSAN RIVER to LIANGA, and at the same time providing an outlet from DAVAO by means of the National Highway via the AGUSAN RIVER to the MAYGATASAN TRAIL.

(2) Bridges: In the forward area the greater number of the bridges, most covering culverts and small rivers, are either usable or can be replaced. The enemy recently destroyed the bridge between SURIGAO and IPIL (SURIGAO). The large bridge at MAGPAYOS, south of BADAS (AGUSAN), was destroyed by the flood of 20 October. The bridge at SANTIAGO (AGUSAN) is out, one bridge between MADRID and LANUZA. These bridges can be repaired where necessary through the cooperation of the local inhabitants. The small bridges would require little time, the larger much more, for repair, depending upon the available materials.

(3) Fortifications: The usual practice of the enemy is to install barbed wire entanglements, foxholes, and trenches around the garrisoned areas. Each garrison has one or more .30 cal MGs covering the main approaches. The recent reports state that there are barbed wire and entanglements along the shore from the wharf to the river's mouth in SURIGAO CITY. There was also an unconfirmed report that land mines are planted on the beach at the mouth of the SURIGAO RIVER. Defensive areas have recently been strengthened from Km 1 to Km 3 (immediately S of the city proper).

(4) Artillery: It has been reported that two 75-mm guns are located within SURIGAO CITY and three at PT BILAA. However, the Japs have recently evacuated PT BILAA and the whereabouts of these guns is not known. A report stated that they had been removed to MADRID but it was not verified. The Japs make constant and effective use of knee mortars and 81-mm mortars in keeping guerrilla units at a distance. There are no known AA guns in the forward area.

(5) Armor: Reports indicate that three tanks are located at BUGO near CAGAYAN.

(6) Underwater Obstacles: A marine mine field was reported extending from PT BILAA in a northerly direction to a point 100 yards off shore. Boats beyond this point proceeded without escort. Local inhabitants found some floating mines on the E coast shores of SURIGAO. These mines were 1 yard in diameter, with eight acid detonators, were painted black, loaded with citric acid powder, and laid at a depth of from two to three yards. Some mines had red flags to indicate position; they are reported by these inhabitants to break away from their moorings easily.

(7) Supplies: In SURIGAO PROVINCE only 80% of the Japs are armed, the rest having lost their equipment during large scale bombings of 9 September or being survivors from ships sunk during recent naval battles. In this province the enemy is better equipped with food supplies than in AGUSAN where it has become necessary to rely on local sources, especially on fish from native fishermen.

2. GUERRILLA ACTIVITIES: During the month of October, following approval of GHQ, SWPA, aggressive action was taken to contain and, where possible, to eliminate enemy garrisons. In the forward area at present, as suggested above, the garrisons at NASIPIT and BUTUAN (AGUSAN) are, except for the sea approaches, definitely surrounded. In SURIGAO PROVINCE enemy is being engaged at MADRID, but reinforcements have been received here, and consequently, guerrilla activity is limited to harrassing attacks only. No large scale offensive action has been taken against the Headquarters garrison at MABUHUAY, principally because of a lack of sufficient mortars and mortar ammunition.

During the first nine months of 1944, a total of 3916 Japanese were killed by guerrilla forces of the Tenth Military District.

. From the time of the original organization of guerrilla units in the Tenth District, special emphasis has been placed on the following activities:

- a. The establishment of coast watcher systems.
- b. The building of intelligence nets for the obtaining of data including facts about troop concentrations and movements, air- and water-borne traffic, and airfield installations. Radio communications were installed for the dissemination of such intelligence whenever the equipment was available. Moreover, the guerrilla units established food projects, and so contributed substantially to the solution of the food problem in a number of areas.

3. ENEMY CAPABILITIES: The enemy is capable of 60V

a. Maintaining a static defense of MINDANAO: Although there does not seem to be any logical reason for the Japs to maintain a static defense of MINDANAO, there have been some indications of recent enemy movement to the S. This would seem to indicate that the Japs intend to continue their policy of keeping a mobile inland reserve for the defense of the Island.

b. Defending the N and the NE coast: There have been no indications that the enemy intends to defend the N and the NE coast. Troops have been moved N to CAGAYAN but none has been moved to the E from there. Some enemy troops have been landed along the E coast of SURIGAO PROVINCE at TANDAG and MADRID but these were small in number and some may have been survivors from ships that were sunk.

c. Evacuating troops to BORNEO via ZAMBOANGA: It is possible for the enemy to evacuate his troops to BORNEO via COTABATO and ZAMBOANGA. The constantly fluctuating enemy strength in ZAMBOANGA would suggest that this province has been used as a staging area for troops. The enemy has been known to stage troops through ZAMBOANGA to COTABATO, and thence to BUKIDNON or DAVAO. Obviously this route could also be used in reverse. During the months of September and October enemy strength in COTABATO PROVINCE increased by approximately 10,000 troops. These probably were scheduled to reinforce the mobile inland reserve in BUKIDNON. It may be that since the American landing on LEYTE they are being held until the enemy can decide which course of action to follow.

d. Moving troops N to CAGAYAN and attempting to reinforce LEYTE: The enemy has already moved the bulk of the 41st Regt., 30th Division, N to CAGAYAN and by boat to LEYTE. During the last week in October a total of 120 truck loads of Japs were seen moving N to CAGAYAN; these probably were the 41st Regt and an additional 600 troops that left CAGAYAN by boat for an unknown destination (probably LEYTE). However, there have been no further indications of any attempts to strengthen CAGAYAN or to send troops there from the S.

e. The evacuation of troops by the enemy from CAGAYAN to the WESTERN VISAYAS remains a capability of the enemy, but no reports have been received that would indicate such a maneuver.

THRU C in C

2 November 1944

1. The following Americans heretofore employed in special operations in the Leyte Area Command, having been released from further service by the Sixth Army, have reported to me for instructions:

	Regular Grade	Guerrilla Grade
J. D. Richardson	LT (USN)	Major
Gordon A. Lang	Yeoman 2/e	Major
Truman Hendonway Jr.	Pfc 4th Cl	Captain
Joseph F. St. John	Pfc 2 AM	2nd Lieut.

2. All of the above named, and many others in other objective areas, avoided capture by the enemy at the time of the surrender and have since been committed to guerrilla warfare with varying results dependent, in large measure, upon individual aggressiveness, courage and devotion to the cause.

3. All of the above named have held guerrilla commissions ranging from Lieutenant to Major. All now revert to their grades held in the regular establishments. All are desirous of being returned to the United States with their families, if any, provided there is no further local requirement for their services.

4. The problem of the disposition of Americans associated with the Philippine resistance movement and our special operations, and awards for especially meritorious service, presents many difficulties if injustice and inequities are to be avoided. Foremost of the considerations present are the following:

a. Neither officers nor men have had the opportunity for advancement in grade they would have had had their service since 6 May 1942 been outside of the Philippines, despite the fact that their service within the Philippines has been accompanied by infinitely more hardship and peril;

b. In the areas wherein commands have been formalized and recognized by the C in C and where communications have long been firmly established there is considerable more information available for the evaluation of individual service than in the unorganized areas of Luzon;

c. In the 10th Military District much more has been done to recognize and reward the service of individual Americans under Colonel Fertig by way of authentic commissions and promotions in the AUS, than has been done in other organized commands under Filipino commanders, or in areas where no formal commands have been created. This is responsive to the naturally increased interest and more aggressive approach to the problem of rewarding the service of Americans by an American commander than by a Filipino commander and to the degree to which communications have been established in the several areas.

5. In the approach to this problem sight should not be lost of the facts that:

a. Many of the officers and men involved originally sustained their freedom from motives of self-preservation - some from a patriotic desire to continue the fight after the Army had been forced to capitulate;

b. Subsequent aggressive service in the development of military intelligence and support of the resistance movement has been motivated by devotion to duty and to the cause;

c. Many have rejected the opportunity for evacuation by submarine during the past year from a sense of responsibility for completion of the job once started;

d. All Americans, at least in the formalized commands, have been the recipients of irregular or guerilla commissions primarily because they were Americans and without regard to the standards prescribed for commissioned grade in the Army of the United States. Many who have rendered meritorious service under guerilla appointment in fact fall far short of the qualifications for commission in the AUS;

e. The service of some warrants the conferrence of a military decoration - of many others it does not.

6. The problem is thus a complex one and yet one that justice demands must find its solution in some sound and equitable basis. I feel that I am not personally qualified to chart such a course for your consideration. I suggest however as a means towards its solution:

a. That as a matter of policy all Americans upon being relieved by the Sixth Army, as it takes over in the several objective areas, if they desire, be returned immediately with their families to the United States for re-assignment after rehabilitation and home leave;

b. That upon his relief a letter of commendation be addressed by the Commander in Chief to each officer and man who, regardless of individual achievement, has contributed to the resistance movement and our special operations, couched in language somewhat as follows:

"I desire to express my grateful acknowledgment for the splendid service you have rendered our cause in the Philippines since the surrender of our forces on 6 May 1942.

Through it you have made a major contribution to the sustenance of Philippine resistance, the development of our system of signal communications and the procurement of intelligence on enemy dispositions and movement in furtherance of my plans of reoccupation.

Your service has won the gratitude of the Filipino people as it has merited the pride of all Americans and I am sure that through it you will always derive much personal satisfaction.

Accept my personal wishes for success in the future service you render in the cause of our country."

That a copy of each such letter be forwarded to the War or Navy Department, as the case may be, for inclusion in the individual record of each officer or enlisted man concerned.

c. That a board of officers be appointed in USAFFE, composed of members experienced in personnel matters, to study and develop the means for appropriate action designed to re-adjust grades and ratings of individuals concerned to an equitable basis, by this Headquarters if within its authority or the War Department if not. Such board to hear and consider all available evidence pertaining to the post-surrender service of each officer and enlisted man and the recommendation in the premises of his local commander. Resulting from its study the board should in addition recommend special awards of military decoration for service of an especially meritorious nature.
