Subj is 1 to 250,000 map coverage of Korea.
Re Part 1 URAD CX 51829, this hq objects tentatively to complete discontinuance of L 551 series on 1 Feb due to certain objectionable qualities of the L 552 series which it is hoped may be overcome prior to complete changeover. Readability of new series is greatly impaired, particularly when covered with acetate, because of the intensity of green and the weak symbolization of roads. It is proposed that an experimental sheet be produced with a very weak tone of green and increased width for all roads not classified as hard surface.

Re: URMSG CX 51694, 20 Dec 50. The Army Eight will hold Seoul for the maximum time possible and this intention is thoroughly understood by all subordinate comdrs.

The length of the line precludes coverage of all vulnerable approaches by US trps pending availability of X Corps and even then it will be difficult.

All available US and ROK Divs except the US 2d Div which is still in process of refitting are on def psns along the Imjin River and 38th parallel or in close support thereof. 3 US and 2 ROK Divs are along the Imjin River north of Seoul protecting approaches to city from the northwest, north and northeast. 5 ROK Divs are disposed to protect the approaches to Chunchon and there are 2 Divs on the east coast approaches. Provided this line is still held when X Corps is ready, it is intended to employ this Corps on the front and further thicken the ROK lines. However it must be realized that a sudden collapse of ROK Forces under Chinese atk has twice previously placed the Army Eight in jeopardy and that a deep penetration of ROK Forces can quickly make our posn north of the Han untenable. This has particular application in that the army must withdraw over an obstacle.

In consideration of difficulties inherent in a possible withdrawal over the Han, reasonable prudence dictates that plans be made for this contingency, that these plans be kept current, and that subordinate commanders be informed of these plans. Likewise it is deemed prudent to reduce the army hqs in Seoul to the essential minimum. The army commander and a staff will remain in Seoul and irreplaceable signal equip not required will be moved south along with the bulk of the hqs.

The Army Eight is a seasoned force. It will stand until ordered to withdraw by the army commander; however, the ROK army is of doubtful stability despite all the strenuous measures to improve it.

Question regarding 16 tank presented by you for Gen Collins on 6 Dec, following interim report submitted. Minimum 13, max 18 M-46 tanks and 1 M-26 tank destroyed at Pyongyang 3-4 Dec. Bare possibility 5 of these being saved not yet established. Hit by 3.5 rocket launchers by 8th Cav Regt. All tanks left on flat cars in Pyongyang Area reported destroyed by friendly air. Two on grd stripped and then destroyed by our 2ngs at collection point because impossible to move over pontoon brdg to rail head. Small tanks were being evacuated for necessary maintenance. Fast changing enemy situation prevented earlier evacuation. 17 tanks including 1 M-26 tank loaded on RR cars by 130 hours 3 Dec, turned over to RPD for mvmt. Engines sent in time to move them. Reasons for not moving trains not yet established. Investigation continues.

URMSG C 51420. Combat effectiveness Thailand Bn currently estimated fair due to unfamiliarity with US Unit orgn and wpns and apparent national characteristic of being slow to assimilate instruction. However, unit as a whole is well disciplined and pers extremely reliable. Combat effectiveness improving daily. Morale excellent.

10th BCT Philippine Expeditionary Force combat effectiveness currently estimated fair, improving daily. Estimated fair, by US standards. Morale currently fair. Both CE morale are improving daily. Have progressed from rating of poor to pres eval. Believe that with contd aggressive leadership such as is now being exhibited, rating can soon be raised to excellent.
