Overnight Info Policy Guidance 423 Mar 30.

1. US attacks Export Import Problem.

Recommend thorough reporting of Presidential appointment of Gordon Gray to head group responsible for solution of problems arising from imbalance between US imports and exports. This is significant development of importance to world audience, and particularly to Western Europe where dollar gap is serious.

2. UN Flag.

Media should avoid discussion of flying UN flag in TRUST territories—a controversial topic better left for future consideration.

3. Germany.

West German border rectification (Contingency Guidance)—US media should be prepared to meet another flare up of German objections to West German rectifications of Apr 1949, when demarkation commission officially announces completion of its work and when as is possible protocol of Mar 22, 1949, setting down details of border rectifications, is published. It will be up to US media to minimize effect of adverse publicity to border rectifications as much as possible. Media should point out that completion of Commissions work and publication of protocol does not mean any substantial rectifications upon those which have already been made. Media should also point out minor border rectifications which have been made are provisional in character and subject to final review at time of Peace Treaty. If necessary media should review broader aspects of border rectification program to show territorial losses on Germany are negligible size and continue to point out only reason for rectification was adjustment of certain geographic anomalies for purpose of facilitating communication and transportation difficulties in border areas.

Media are strongly cautioned not to start any publicity on issue unless it is picked up by German media. Shld German reaction however, be very strong media shld attempt to place border rectifications into their proper perspective as a provisional development of relatively minor importance.

Annex 4. Visit of Sir Basil Brooke.

A. Background.

US visit of Sir Basil Brooke Prime Min Northern Ireland Apr 5 to May 9 will be strictly unofficial, without govt invitation. New York, Washington, Philadelphia and Chicago are on his schedule.

In Wash Apr 6-11 he will be guest of British Ambassador 2 days, make a courtesy call on Sec State, lay wreaths in Arlington, address the National Press Club and be entertained by the Dept of Defense in appreciation for cooperation afforded American troops in Northern Ireland during the war. Sir Basil regrets he will not be received by President Truman. A model of a monument commemorating the landing of American troops in Ulster will be received on the President's behalf by another official.

Sir Basil wants to acquaint Americans and Canadians with the contribution Northern Ireland is making to British economic recovery and to recall the part Ulster played in the war. It is denied his visit is to counteract antiparticipation propaganda here. However Pro-Nationalist Irish groups are reportedly planning to picket and demonstrate against Sir Basil.

B. Treatment.

1. Actual news meriting treatment should be reported.
2. Limited output news and comment should reflect sincere US appreciation for Northern Ireland's wartime contributions to victory.
3. Avoid:
 - a. Giving visit any air of official character or political significance.
 - b. Overplaying the visit or any anti-Brooke demonstrations.

REURTELS 204, 205 and 207, for your info Dept informed FR High Commissioner IC believes Viet Nam Govt may refuse attend Inter-State Conference or agree become member of a quadripartite group which would either submit individual state requirements for both econ and mil aid, or a single document embodying requests from 3 states plus separate Fr needs. In either case it was Fr proposal that Fr authority countersign.

Pignon apparently believes this new attitude of Viets is due their misapprehension that perhaps as result of Griffin Mission and other expressions US friendship it will be unnecessary for Viets deal with other states or Fr in drawing up and submitting list mutually agreed requirements.

Dept desires such misapprehension be dispelled in as rapid and dipl a manner as possible.

US, having recognized status of states under Mar 8 and similar agreements has no intention allowing its position to be interpreted in such manner as to free Fr or IC states from performance under agreements.

While we will continue push Fr to interpret liberally terms their agreements with the states we also expect the 3 states, and particularly Bao Dai, to discharge their undertakings under the agreements. A specific case in point is their tendency overlook the responsibility provided by the Mar 8 agreements to Fr in matters affecting defense of the 3 states.

Dept continues feel that problem of mechanics of aid is one which requires first the mutually agreed desires of 3 states and France and secondly acceptable US policy, resources and public opinion. If either inter-state or quadripartite talks are made impossible by Viet intransigence it is obvious no mutual program can be formed for submission to US. Equally obvious would be strong US public reaction against attempting deal with NZJ states and Fr when they are unable, in view urgency situation as pointed out by both sides, to agree among themselves.

The tendency which the Viets are showing to play US off against the Fr where mil and econ aid are concerned is one which might well jeopardize our plans in this respect. It should be made plain to them the early creation of a quadripartite organization to which econ and mil aid can be directed is of the greatest importance to this govt in determining extent such aid.

Example urgency solution is fact that it may be possible find 37mm ammunition available for shipment within short time. However, funds cannot be allocated until title of recipient determined.

Dept continues desire and assumes Fr accept desirability making 3 states publicized recipients mil as well econ aid, while actually utilizing channels most appropriate. Dept does not desire disturb any way Fr mil authority upon whom not only problem distribution falls but major share end use mil aid. Required therefore is mutually acceptable procedure applicable all types mil aid regardless end user. This decision need not any way prejudice quadripartite distribution committee allocations after arrival aid.

As an interim measure to apply to emergency items such as C-54's and 37mm ammunition Dept is considering practicability vesting title and resting consignment in Commander-In-Chief Combined French Indo-Chinese Forces. Do you believe similar formula desirable for all subsequent military aid? Could title be vested in quadripartite personality and consignment made in the case of military assistance to Cmdr-In-Chief?

1. Italy--MDAP: Ceremony marking shipment of Ground Forces Arms to Italy will be held Friday, Mar 31, at Port of Embarkation, Brooklyn. In accordance with Special Guidance Nbr 16-Second Supplement, Jan 24, 1950, publicity on MDAP from US should be minimized in favor of publicity originating in recipient countries. Hence, no reason exists for more than full and fair news coverage, lest opportunity be given Communists for renewal or acceleration of campaign already under way against MDAP. In this connection:

A) Play up remarks by US labor representative that backing of MDAP by US labor will be helpful in Italy. However, avoid affording opportunity for Communist press to interpret as US interference with Italian labor.

B) Play up Italy's joining NAT and steps towards peace through unified, defensive strength as appeal to Italian patriotism.

C) Point up fact Italian defense against aggression and protection of post-war economic progress will be aided by these initial shipments.

D) Play down US-USSR Cold War theme and material Communists could use to show "US will fight to last European."

E) Avoid any implication MDAP supplies being used to bolster internal Italian Govt. Emphasize aid helps Italians strengthen selves against aggression.

2. Germany: All-German elections--Bonn Three Point Plan and CDU/LDP capitulation on question of single party list offer excellent opportunity for all media to continue campaign questioning Soviet willingness to effect German unity on democratic basis and strengthening East German opposition to Soviet rule. Media should stress:

A) Election request has full sympathy and support of US people. (Caution: Full credit should be given to Germans, avoiding impression step was inspired or prompted by US).

B) Move recognized as genuine wish on part of Adenauer Govt to put their political fortunes at stake in interests of German unity, indicating their concern for unification transcends selfish or partisan political interests.

C) Soviet reaction so far belies their declared interest in unity. Nuschke's statement that his party had decided to end all opposition to Soviet plans is in direct contradiction to his promises last fall, that principles of free election would be observed in 1950 ballot.

D) If Soviets mean what they say, now is time to prove it. Up to them to carry out in actions promises implied in words.

Overnight Information Policy Guidance Nbr 420 Mar 27, 4 PM.

1. Political Polemics: Election year attacks on US foreign policies and government officials responsible for them should be related to public discussion of public affairs normal to a Democracy. Media should carry news accounts of such attacks when necessary for credibility and for complete picture of US Demo in action, but should balance these by statements showing real purpose and continuity in US cold war policy, complete confidence of President in officials of administration, and public support of US policy and officials implementing it. Stories should not indicate US confusion at this time when strength and purpose are needed.

2. Ruble: Main facts of US Embassy note to Soviet Ministry of Foreign Affairs protesting proposed abolition of diplomatic exchange rate (Dept Release 27) may be used with emphasis on purely fictitious character of an "Exchange Rate" for Ruble, which is COT traded internationally, and on excessive cost of living under which Russian people suffer.

3. Bolivia: Pending further guidance, media should give only brief, factual coverage to attempted Bolivian Revolution.

4. Germany: In view of possibility of early German entry into council of Europe, media should review attitude towards this goal and make certain it conforms with following policy:

A. US in general favors early German entry into Council, providing there is no objection from European nations. This policy is logical step in desire of US Government for closer European associations on all levels of political, economic and social affairs and US Governments feeling any step towards linking Germany more closely with community of Western Europe will further solution of German problem.

B. Allied High Commission, in Petersburg Agreement of Nov, 24, 1949, expressed favorable attitude towards early German participation in council. Within this framework media should make full use of comment favorable to Germany's entry into council. Media cautioned, however, to note US, now being member of council, must refrain from interfering in such procedural questions as administration, application, co-administration of SAAR, etc. In particular media should avoid all comment on stipulation of conditions which the Ger Govt demands prior to entry into council.

5. Erratum: Last sentence, second para of item one of Guidance Nbr 419 should read: "Hiatus elections necessitate admittance Hiatus."

Media should point out obvious attempts of east zone puppet regime to avoid real election of any kind-zone-wise or all-German because they realize probable results. Elections, to be real, must give electorate choice between real issues and between candidates who represent different political and economic points of view. Choice for or against a state of peace, peace treaty and withdrawal of occupation troops does not constitute real election with real issues. Media should instill idea all-German elections necessary to admittance of all parties in all parts of country, to free and unhindered electioneering by all and to free choice between actual issues.

Overnight Information Policy Guidance Nbr 418 March 23, 1950:

1. Ambassadors: Rome meeting-German press is speculating that agenda of meeting is mainly concerned with German problems and attributes it sensational significance. To place meeting in proper perspective media should follow line taken by Dept press release March 15 (Wireless Bulletin 62, Mar 15). Point out meetings, of which this is 2d, are part of regular procedure in US Foreign Service, which calls for periodic exchange of ideas among ambassadors of any given region on mutual problems. Media should note similar conferences recently in Africa and Asia. These meetings held abroad with officers of Dept as matter of convenience. Media should not speculate as to agenda.

2. Benton speech: Senator Benton's speech, Mar 22, should not be confused with official policy, but should receive good play except 5th proposal on Western Powers meeting.

3. Iran: In output to NEA and particularly to Iran media should continue to avoid reporting submission of US arms aid agreement drafts. If used, however, report briefly and factually, avoiding mention of amount of money, fact that Iran is last of 13 nations to be considered for aid, and speculation as to probable date of conclusion of agreement.

To Iran media should give good coverage to social activities of Iranian Military Mission in Washington, referring to mission as a "Consultative Mission", but should not mention business activities of group.

4. Greece: To all areas media should be very brief and factual in reporting Venizelo's leaving center coalition to try to form government with "Populists" and other extreme right elements. (FYI: Media should not give Greek people slightest reason to feel US favors move or approves of outcome, which is still in doubt. New government, if formed, might be successful, or might split country politically).

5. Berlin: Neinz Lippmann statement that FDJ Whitsunday will be carried on regardless of west sector permit should be followed up to counter false impression (perhaps deliberately intended) that he was calling off any demonstration in west sector. Analysis, preferably but not exclusively by picking up comment, should point out that Lippmann's statement east sector is large enough for a demonstration actually did not make the corollary point that attempts at penetration of the west sector would be foregone. We should point out statement probably designed to mislead east zone parents and children into belief participation would be "Perfectly safe" and also induce west authorities to relax their law and order preparations. Medi should continue to warn that west will not stand for mob disturbance of peace in its sectors, and that consequences of disturbance will be clear responsibility of Soviet instigators.

6. Special Annex German Constitutional Court Item.
Objective: To bring German public opinion to bear in favor of early establishment of a constitutional court, utilizing US overt as well as German information media.

Item I. Background: Article 93 of basic law provides for a German constitutional court which shall have following areas of competence:

A. Decide on interpretation within basic law of rights and duties of Federal Legislature and Federal Executive.

B. Resolve differences between land and Federal Law competence.

Reports of activities of German Federal Republic to date indicate there has not yet been developed an adequate system of checks and balances as between the Legislative, Judicial and Executive Branches of Government. Some reports, moreover, express concern that Executive Branch of German Federal Republic is moving towards position in which it may dominate Legislative Branch to detriment of a balanced government structure and of public interest. A constitutional court would represent effective check.

It is incumbent upon Executive Branch of Government to bring a constitutional court into existence. It is not impossible, in view of fact constitutional court would be obligated to define (and thereby delimit) are of competence of Executive Branch, that Adenauer Government may be delaying deliberately establishment of a constitutional court.

Item II. Treatment:

A. German media should be encouraged:

(1) To discuss importance of establishing constitutional court and obligation of Adenauer Government to proceed with its establishment;

(2) To enquire when constitutional court will be called into being;

(3) To speculate on possible candidates for appointment.

B. US overt media may make more pronounced reference to role of judiciary in giving balance to structure of Democratic governments. Particular emphasis may be placed on activities of US Supreme Court. Point out effective constitutional court represents a vital security factor in confining Executive and Legislative Branches of Government to powers and authorities specifically granted to them by people under basic constitution. Reference may be made to provision peculiar to US Constitutional Law which places individual citizen under protection of Supreme Court as against encroachment upon his rights by other branches of government. (This protection not clearly provided by powers granted constitutional court in basic law).

C. Treatment should be couched in terms which will indicated Democratic forces will have gathered an important victory when court is called into action and begins to fulfill its functions.

D. Efforts should be made to develop generally an atmosphere of constructive suggestions towards putting strength into a growing Democracy.

E. Avoid treatment which would tend to discredit or bring under suspicion Executive Branch of Federal German Republic for its procrastination in calling constitutional court into existence. Instead point out opportunity for important piece of domestic action.

F. For purposes of coordination US overt media should pick up themes from initial impetus given by German press, e.g. As reported in weekly publications analysis of press and Publications Branch, Information Services Division, March 9, 1950.

Most likely course would seem military venture offering advantages Commies of diverting attention from international problems and serving propaganda ends by showing Communism as dynamic and growing force 'Here to stay'.

This accompanied by build-up Commie ground forces and Naval units Hangchow Bay and Fukien Province. Commie intentions appear include following with sequence and rapidity depending largely on abilities of untried Commie Air Force:

(1) Capture Chu Shan Island by air-supported Armies now in place south of Shanghai.

(2) Attack on Taiwan either by air alone to eliminate COAAFF or with intent capture of island by landings coordinated with air attacks.

"At Tinghai in conference with Commanding General the opinion is that no attack will be made before 1st May. When it does come it will be in 3 waves, first small boats, probably hand paddled, second boats 5 to 10 tons with artillery and supplies, and third a reserve wave of 10 to 30 ton vessels. The Communists have garrisoned 27 islands and the Nationalists have strong defense on 51. Prisoners are captured rather regularly by the Nationalists and interrogations shows that rowing teams are out practicing in Changshi Bay. Prisoners go through a retraining program with officers sent to Taiwan. Prisoners inspected were clean, in good order and cooperative. River boat men prisoners looked very weather beaten and unhappy about loss of ships and their general predicament. So far no power boats captured. Civilians have been unified for road building transport etc and are utilized group at a time. Taishan Air Field operational in Apr for B-24 raids Tientsin and Peking. Boat building by Commies and auto engine powering continues in places mentioned earlier, but believe that Commies still 200 short of their 500 goal. Comment: Navy vessels look in good order which may be due to expected inspection by Madame Chiang. Barring defection of parts of defense organization Tinghai can be held by the Nationalists if an air attack is not made. Ship repair is very minor. "Re Shanghai Evacuation, information from contact Foreign Trade Bureau yesterday that real reason for delay in issuance entry permit to Evacuation LST's is desire to use departing Americans for while longer as shield against Nationalist air attacks on Shanghai. According to several sources Shanghai air defense preparations now underway with Soviet assistance will not be completed for several days. Authorities reason that disastrous air attack on utilities might take place as soon as Americans leave unless defenses are complete. As result entry permit may be granted next week but serious delay to General Gordon may result.

Cheng Kan Chi, Advisor to Alien Affairs Bureau, informed Canadian Vice Consul yesterday that he had overheard extended discussion of LST permit question in AAB; that they obviously intended eventually to authorize entry; that they had no conception of crucial importance of time factor; that their procrastination was due to combination of bureaucratic inefficiency

Decision needs to be made today whether to gamble on entry

Media should stress all types of affirmative material in order to convey to Berliners (and Soviets) that Western World is prepared to meet challenge presented by FDJ plans. Rpts concerning these plans must be screened carefully for accuracy. Media, while warning of any Soviet intentions, must avoid fostering undue nervousness which would support Soviet strategy of spreading uncertainty, fear and speculation.

Caution should be exercised lest treatment contribute to inflated significance of FDJ Rally itself.

Subj is Summary FEC Mtg Mar 16, 1950. Exercise of Criminal and Civil Jurisdiction over Nationals of Members of the United Nations (FEC 371).

Chi Rep pointed out he had no instrs as yet from his Govt. However, it was view of his del that paper seeks to restore to Japan an undue measure of sovereignty which seems incompatible with her status pending conclusion of a peace treaty and may if adopted constitute a departure from principles that underly occupation. Present paper was considered to meet reasonable needs of present situation. Moreover, his del was concerned on account of possible effects which proposed transfer of jurisdiction might have on large nbr of Chi Natls in Japan.

US Rep expressed hope paper cld be referred to Comite at next mtg.

No discussion other items on agenda.

In view of fact that developments London mtg IWC will be made public Dept has prepared following statement regarding status Jap application membership in IWA for use at SCAP's or your discretion with press:

"On March 15 the International Wheat Council, meeting in London, considered an application for Jap membership in the International Wheat Agreement, which has for some time been sponsored by the US. The Council did not find it possible at this time to approve Jap membership, although all exporter countries and many importer countries favored it. There was no adverse decision, however, and the question was left open for settlement at a later date."

FYI and for possible use as background, IWC accepted Ger as member, officially and formally without condition. Nevertheless such admission was possible only because Ger deposited with IWC a letter declaring Ger intention not purchase more non-dollar wheat than amount added to non-dollar exporter quotas as result Ger accession. Because this appeared in fact to be conditional membership, Austral voted against it. Absence such letter in case Jap was reason UK, with more than 1-3d importer votes, opposed Jap membership except on basis formal condition equivalent to provisions letter. When IWC faced question voting on admission Jap on conditional basis, it decided postpone decision. US had previously tried and failed link Germany and Jap memberships, although 16 countries out of 24 favored joint consideration.

Comment: There appears good possibility Austral-Brit arrangement in near future which will satisfy Brit concern over access non-dollar wheat, without tying formal condition Jap membership. If such arrangement made, Jap unconditional accession can easily be voted next IWC mtg, to be held before July 31. Dept believes sharp criticism of Brit opposition to unconditional Jap accession might at this time endanger possibility such arrangements, which are entirely feasible if not unduly publicized.

5. Germany-Special Annex. Problem: To counteract attack which Polish Govt has made upon US, charging "Inhumanity" in refusal of US High Commissioner for Germany to accede to recent dumping of Germans, particularly women and children, transported toward Western Germany, fr their homes East of Oder-Neisse line.

Background: During morning of Mar 2 a trainload of 721 Germans fr Polish Administered territory east of Oder-Neisse line was unloaded at Arnsthausen, 1 mile east of Zonal Border of lower Sazony. High Commission stated its position on this action in a communication addressed to Federal Chancellor Mar 3, as follows:

"Under the powers reserved to it by a letter of Nov 28, 49, approved the admission into the territory of the German Federal Republic of 25,000 refugees of certain categories fr Polish territory and German territory administered by Poland. They consisted of Germans who had relatives in the Western Zones ready to receive them and able to support them :

"The High Commissioner subsequently invited the German Federal Govt to take measures to control the admission of individual German refugees to the Federal territory. At the same time, the commission specifically reserved all questions relative to the admission of German refugees which would involve the movement of groups of refugees . . . therefore the High Commission considers it to be its duty to take a position" relative to the dumping of a refugee transport at Arnsthausen.

The communication further points out that it was not possible to establish that any of these refugees were included in agreement mentioned in the letter of Nov 28, 1949. In fact none of those de-trained at Arnsthausen appeared even to be among categories envisaged in Nov 28 letter.

Information given by Polish Govt to British Embassy in Warsaw indicates this transport of refugees represents only a first installment, and Polish Govt proposes to proceed with expulsion to Federal Republic of entire German population still remaining east of Oder-Neisse line.

High Commission takes position that these measures are direct responsibility of Polish authorities who initiated this movement and of Soviet Zone authorities who facilitated.

High Commission believes admission of these refugees could only encourage continuation of these inhumane and arbitrary measures. Moreover, accommodations are not available in Western Zones of Germany for refugees in excess of nos referred to in Nov 28 letter and admission of numbers of refugees greatly in excess of available accommodations would result in great hardship and misery for people concerned. For these reasons, High Commission directed German Federal Government immediately to prevent entry into Federal Territory of all organized transfers of refugees not included in categories mentioned in Nov 28 letter and whose names are not included in nominal roles of cases included among 25,000 whose acceptance was agreed to estimates indicate that although there may be between 200,000 and 400,000 Germans to be expelled from Poland and Polish Administered Territory, 3 High Commissioners all agreed to order stopping admission of all refugees not included in group of 25,000 to Western Zone of Germany. This prohibition is to stand until mass transports on an organized basis are stopped by Polish Government. There has been no closing of the borders, however, to individual movements. Agreement of US High Commissioner to these measures was also made in additional consideration that, had no agreement been reached, entire movement of the refugees might be directed to the US Zone.

Treatment: In countering Polish Government claims (and on any media inside Germany presenting same charges) that Western Allies have acted in an inhumane manner, emphasize following facts in forthright, non-defensive tone.

1. US and its Western Allies, in present situation, have been motivated by humane considerations both for refugees and Federal Republic population. Welfare of Federal Republic has already been prejudiced by millions of refugees seeking shelter there from inhumanity of Soviet dominated governments of the east. To admit more refugees indiscriminately to Western Germany might impose hardships with regard to housing, food and employment upon citizens of the Federal Republic.
2. US is determined not to endanger benefits which sacrifices of US citizens bring to German nation by permitting Polish Government in collusion with GDR authorities to force sacrifices from resources of Western Germany.
3. In this situation Western Allies cannot go beyond their generous agreement to accept 25,000 of refugees from Eastern Germany who have relatives in Federal Republic able to guarantee their maintenance.

4. Point out effort of Polish Government to use GDR Leaders as Cats Paw in this maneuver is a transparent device for excaping responsibility for its own reprehensible behavior.

5. Express regret felt in this country that Germans east of Oder-Neisse line are being made to suffer through brutality of the Polish Government which is uprooting them from their homes and transporting them westward under false pretenses.

6. If officials of GDR have accepted responsibility for refugees from Poland or from German Territory east of the Oder-Neisse line, as Polish Government claims, US Government will consider those officials responsible also for providing for these people. GDR authorities have no authority whatever for unloading these people on western Germany economy.
