"The Far Eastern Broadcasting Corp filed claim in the amt of $155,000 American for estimated fair value of their radio transmitting station at Polo, Bulacan and broadcasting studios at the Villonco Bldg, Manila identified as "KZRF" and "KZRM" together with various fixtures and equipment allegedly requisitioned by the USAFFE shortly after the outbreak of war and for the subsequent destruction thereof before the USAFFE evacuated Manila for Bataan.

"Pre war technician of the Far Eastern Broadcasting Corp in his testimony taken before this office, asserts that after the outbreak of war the broadcasting studios were not permitted to continue regular commercial broadcasts, and that the aforesaid stations were permitted to operate only on direct orders from the GHQ..

"It was further asserted that the stations were utilized for the propagation of info relating to the war effort, such as the broadcasting of military communiques, air raid warning and first aid instructions, press relations office, Red Cross, National Defense releases, dissemination of propaganda etc, and that the transmitting station of the Claimant Corp was used to a large extent for the purpose of jamming shortwave broadcasts.

"He stated that each day an officer from the GHQ whose name sounds similar to Major "Diller" gave telephonic instructions as to time studios could commence and end broadcasting activities and as to frequencies that the transmitters should be tuned in for jamming shortwave broadcasts. "He concluded saying that the transmitting station and the broadcasting studios were guarded by USAFFE soldiers shortly after the outbreak of war and that those issued USAFFE passes were the only persons allowed on the premises and permitted freedom of movement, and that the USAFFE dynamited the transmitting house at Polo, Bulacan and that a mobile transmitting unit mounted in a panel truck was requisitioned by the USAFFE and taken by them to Bataan.

"In your radio reply, please state your knowledge according to the best of your recollection whether allegations herein stated are true and accurate, and if not, specify precisely those allegations which appear to be otherwise."

New York Times Correspondent Lindesay Parrott, Tokyo 25 Sep: The Japanese Govt is contemplating a "2d Round" of dismissals of public employees whose nbrs are still held to be excessive, political sources said today. . . . Although further cuts are opposed by both labor and the opposition parties, govt spokesmen point to a need for greater economies under the austerity program demanded by the allies as the price of continued subsidies for Japan.

New York Times Correspondent Burton Crane, Tokyo 26 Sep: Bankers here are protesting vigorously but probably ineffectually over govt plans to cut interest rates on loans. . . . Occupation officials are beginning to realize that while industrial rationalization plans are putting the squeeze on commercial and industrial companies, the financing world has been (more) overlooked.

Chicago Sun Times, 26 Sep: 2 Japanese advisers were scheduled to attend the UN Regional Food Conference in Singapore with the blessing of Gen MacArthurs Agriculture Div. But they wont. The Singapore Govt said they can't attend because their presence might arouse the antagonism of Singapore residents who suffered under Japanese occupation.

Chicago Tribune Correspondent Walter Simmons, Kaeson 25 Sep: South Korea's 100,000 troops, after only 9 months of American training, are impatient to surge across the 38th parallel and crush North Korean forces which have been harrassing the Southern Republic with bloody hit and run raids. All along the border foot soldiers showed the same confidence as their leaders in Seoul. . . . The arrears made in China have been avoided by the American Military Mission in Korea. . . . Washington Post Columnist Robert S Allen 23 Sep: Gen J Lawton Collins, the Army's new Chief of Staff, is leaving next week for the Far East. His itinerary includes Japan, China and India. He will confer with both US and British authorities. Main purpose of Collins trip is a first hand study of the measures that will be necessary to implement the new policy fixed by Secretary of State Acheson and Foreign Minister Bevin. Under this policy, the US will assume a number of British military obligations in the Far East, particularly as regards India.

New York Times Correspondent Lindesay Parrott, Tokyo 19 Sep: The Conservative Japanese Government of Premier Shigeru Yoshida has about dropped its plan to press for a reorganization and an increase in manpower of the national police force, as suggested by Lt Gen Robert L Eichelberger, former commander here of the US Eighth Army, well informed political circles assert. Tracy S Voorhees stated during his recent visit here that "great improvement" had been made in the equipment as well as the training and organization of the Japanese police. Mr Voorhees, it will be recalled, stated the allied objection to any Japanese tinkering with the postwar police plan dictated by the occupation when he told correspondents that Gen Douglas MacArthur "feels confident that the Japanese police force can control any possible disorders with the moral support which would be given by the occupation forces" ...

Washington Star, 23 Sep: Korea cannot survive unless she gets $150,000,000 a year from the US for the next 3 yrs, according to Ambassador John M Chang of the South Korean Republic. Speaking yesterday at a National Press club luncheon, Mr Chang said Koreans also rely on American assistance in obtaining just reparations from Japan, which occupied their country from 1905 to the end of World War II..

Washington Star Correspondent Keyes Beech, Seoul 23 Sep: A city faceted with autumn calm, a tidier city, a city friendlier to Americans a city still ridden by political terrorism. These are my impressions of this capital of Southern Korea today, a little over a year after the area beneath the 38th Parallel became an independent republic. They are impressions, confirmed by American observers here, at least insofar as the Korean attitude toward American citizens is concerned, now that the US Army-except for 500 military advisers-has pulled out. The Koreans apparently were just getting tired of being "liberated."...

Washington Star Correspondent Ray Falk, Tokyo 23 Sep: High American officers here feel it is time to ameliorate the surrender terms and give the Japanese a chance at civil aviation... "If we don't let them develop an aviation industry, they'll do it secretly, I Air Force officer said. You can't keep an ambitious people like the Japanese down forever"... The question of an internal airline for Japan has received much consideration here, and it is believed that recommendations made by Gen MacArthur's staff are under study in Washington....

Philadelphia Inquirer, AP Tokyo 20 Sept: General Douglas MacArthur today authorized the Japanese to revise their yen British pound rate. Japans currency was not devalued. "There is no intention to make any change at present in the existing yen United states dollar rate" Allied Hq added....what MacArthur did in effect was scale down the value of the yen for yen pound deals in the same proportion as the British pound was devalued.

Washington Post columnist Drew Pearson, 21 Sept: ...Gen MacArthur has cabled the State Dept urging that Japan be included as a charter member in the proposed Far Eastern Defense Alliance. MacArthur believes that without Japans manpower and industrial resources, any Anti-Communist Alliance in the Far East is doomed to failure. So he's asked the State Dept to try and convince Australia and New Zealand to let bygones be bygones and invite the Japanese to join....

Baltimore Sun 20 Sept: Maj Gen J Robert Sheetz...has arrived in Japan to serve on the staff of Gen Douglas MacArthur....In his new assignment, the general will serve as personnel officer for all occupation forces in Japan....

New York Herald Tribune, UP Tokyo 19 Sept: Shichiro Morioka, Editor of the Left wing Rengo News Agency, denied today that he violated the American Supreme Commands press code by printing 3 foreign news stories "falsely and destructively critical of occupation powers." Taking the stand in his own defense before a 3 man Army Provost Court, Morioka dodged the questions as to whether he believed the contents of the stories were true. He said he was quoting someone else in the stories, and not reflecting his own opinion....

New York Herald Tribune, AP Washington 19 Sept: The Army said today it will soon stop buying fish on the Pacific Coast for occupation forces in Japan. The supplies are to be obtained from Japanese domestic sources....The Army said the action is in line with regulations allowing military commanders to purchase food stocks locally when the domestic economy of the country concerned will stand it.

New York Times Correspondent Lindesay Parrott, Tokyo 19 Sept: Formosans in increasing numbers are fleeing to Japan. Their motive is to seek refuge from a possible immediate Communist coup in the island and to protest against the reported mistreatment of Formosan natives by Nationalist troops and administrators from the Chinese mainland....

New York Times Correspondent Burton Crane, Tokyo 19 Sept: Through all the Japanese comment on the sterling devaluation runs the foreboding line, "although Japanese exports will drop sharply." But officials generally maintain the classic attitude that the yen must hold its ground. Finance Minister, Hayato Keda, after conferring with the govts top economic officials, reminded his press conference that any decision regarding the yen rate must come from the Allied Occupation... Occupation economic officials today are drafting a memorandum for Gen Douglas MacArthur and a public statement from him on the pound is expected tomorrow.

Christian Science Monitor Correspondent Albert E Norman 17 Sept, Sydney: Australia, which long has advocated an early peace treaty with Japan, is now pressing the point with new vigor in the hope that Japan can be integrated into economic and military defense plans of Australia and Southeast Asia....

Chicago Sun Times Columnist Frederic Marquardt, 19 Sept: Gradually, almost imperceptibly, the United States is filling the vacuum in its foreign policy that was left by the State Depts China paper. The outlines of the new policy are vague, and its final form is far from certain. But this much seems very definite. The United States is not going to withdraw from Asia. Thus far the new policy shows itself in the following places.

1-Japan. We want an early peace treaty for Japan, to be followed by several years of American occupation during which Japans peacetime industry will be given every opportunity to get back on its feet....

2-China. We are going to let the Communists stew in their own juice....

4-Philippines. We are almost as sensitive about the forthcoming Philippine elections as we are about the British elections. American officials have gone out of their way to be neutral in the fight between Jose P Laurel, Puppet President under the Japanese, and President Elpidio Quirino, open friend and supporter of the United States... But the Philippines must remain the keystone of American foreign policy in Asia.... The foregoing does not add up to the dynamic Far Eastern Policy which the United States should have. It falls far short of the dramatic proclamation of the open door by Sec of State John Hay 50 yrs ago. But it is at least a start. Something could come of it.

Washington Post, AP New York 19 Sept: Gen Douglas MacArthur was quoted tonight as saying he won't come back to the United States now because he wouldn't "be left alone"-especially on the Washington Post, UP Tokyo 18 Sept: Big 3 agreement on matters of Far Eastern Policy, announced yesterday in Wash, were regarded in Tokyo as a top level indorsement of Gen Douglas MacArthur's stewardship over Japan....

Although American occupation administrators withheld their official comment they privately expressed the belief that now Great Britain and France at least would offer no objection to allowing Japan more and more responsibility in managing their own affairs-peace treaty or no peace treaty. Thus a consistent MacArthur Program for the past 2 years-over some objections in Wash and bitter objections in the Far Eastern Commission-became the official United States Policy.

New York Times, Tokyo 17 Sept: President Syngman Rhee of the Republic of South Korea has sent a message to Gen Douglas MacArthur that the Korean Govt favors the conclusion of a peace treaty with Japan at the earliest possible date. This was announced today by Chun Han Pum, head of the Korean Liaison Mission here, after his return from a visit to Seoul....

New York Times Correspondent Lindesay Parrott, Tokyo 12 Sept: An interesting theory is being advanced here that Japan, 4 years after the surrender, now is in a position to feed herself, despite repeated requests for about 2,000,000 tons annually of imported foodstuffs furnished largely by United States Relief

Funds....After 4 years of occupation and United States support few Japanese individuals display much worry over the food situation—once the Number 1 problem here....whether or not Japan now is able to feed herself, it is unquestionable that the food problem now has receded into the distant background.

New York Times Correspondent Burton Crane, Tokyo 16 Sept: Japanese business men with few exceptions praise the tax reform report prepared for the occupation by Prof Carl S Shoup of Columbia University, but American businessmen unanimously condemn it. The American business men consider the report highly discriminatory against foreign business and predict that if enforced it will bring a general exodus of commercial representatives at a time when Japan needs all the foreign contacts that she can get....Today the New York Times correspondents interviewed more than 40 American businessmen, constituting a fair cross section of this community. They found 1 Airline expecting to pull out if the proposal becomes law because its American salary would go up 80%....

Chicago Tribune, Reuters Tokyo 17 Sept: The 5614 ton Norwegian freighter Helgoy appealed for American Naval aid after being shelled by North Korean coastal batteries Thursday, according to a report received by agents in Yokohama, it was learned today....Carrying a cargo of coal, the Helgoy was bound for a Korean port from Sakhalin. The agents advised her captain to make for Sasebo, United States Naval Base in Japan.

Washington Star, 19 Sept, by Wallace R Deuel: The American Occupation of Japan suffers from at least 3 major defects, a former member of Gen Douglas MacArthur's Staff in Tokyo writes in the latest number of the Military Govt Journal.

1st, American officials underestimated at the outset the difficulties of the job which faced them in Japan Robert P Crawford writes.

2d, He says: The occupation suffers from bureaucratic rigidity. Orders once issued are seldom revised, and continue to be acted on indefinitely, even when there is no longer any justification for them.

3d, Gen MacArthur hasn't been able to get enough of the right kind of personnel for supervisory jobs, according to Mr Crawford....

Mr Crawford doesn't blame Gen MacArthur himself or his highest ranking staff members for these shortcomings of the occupation. "It is obvious that neither the Supreme Commander nor the Chief of Staff can be bothered with details, he writes. The troubles come from dead thinking on a straw boss level.

New York Times Correspondent Lindesay Parrott, Tokyo 15 Sept: Japanese and foreign diplomatic circles here tonight received with interest but considerable skepticism Sec of State Dean Acheson's announcement that he and British Sec Ernest Bevin had agreed on the urgency of a peace treaty for Japan and intended to review the whole situation in search of a new approach to this goal. The opinion generally expressed was that the Washington Meetings actually had made little if any alteration in the Japanese situation despite the Anglo American Declaration. . . . A high ranking Allied diplomat told correspondents that the "situation is no further advanced than it was several months ago." . . .

New York Times 16 Sept: Knitted glove manufacturers yesterday appealed to retailers to support their campaign against Japanese merchandise. . . . Speaking at the annual luncheon of the Association of American Knit glove and Mitten Manufacturers . . . A C Ackerman of the Ackshand Knitting Co, and a member of the Association's Tariff Committee, warned that stability of the glove market was endangered by Japanese goods. . . .

New York Times, Seoul 15 Sept: The Korean Republic's Air of 18 light planes marked today its first anniversary, with a display of precision flying, ground strafing and dive bombing. 50,000 Koreans watched the show along with Premier Lee, Eun Suk and Brig Gen William L Roberts, Commander of the US Army's Korean Mil Advisory Gp. . . .

New York Herald Tribune, UP Washington 15 Sept: The US today used its veto power to kill a resolution in the Far Eastern Commission which would have prevented American officials from carrying out their plan to deliver $80,000,000 in Japanese gold to Siam and French Indo China. After killing the resolution, the US advised the 11 nation commission that it was immediately authorizing Gen of the Army Douglas MacArthur to turn over the gold to the 2 countries. . . .

Washington News Editorial 16 Sept: Sec of State Acheson and British Fgn Secretary Bevin apparently plan another attempt to win Russia's agreement to arrangements for a Japanese peace conference. However, in the Soviet attitude remains unchanged, the conference should not be delayed longer on that account. . . . The conference should be called on our terms, letting the Soviets decide for themselves whether to come in or stay out. Then the Democratic Nations should proceed to draft a treaty acceptable to themselves, which the Russians can sign or not sign as they see fit.

New York Journal American Editorial Page 15 Sept: (Editorial on Gen MacArthur covered complete page): Gen Douglas MacArthur's Administration in Japan has been one of the monumental achievements of history. . . . His has been the only successful mil occupation since the way-unless Soviet Russias enslavement of little peoples be accepted as a success. . . . The one man who can redeem our fortunes and stop the advance of Communism in the Far East is not Dean Acheson but Gen MacArthur.
