Esteban N. Morada, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That he is a Filipino, of legal age, married, and a resident of 251 Sanciangko St., Cebu City, Cebu.

That he personally knows Geronimo N. Santizo, who was a "Quartermaster" or "Helmsman" on the M/S "KATIPUNAN" even long before the war broke out and until the said M/S "KATIPUNAN" was scuttled off Cagayan, Oriental Misamis, on May 3, 1942.

That said Geronimo N. Santizo was drafted into the United States Armed Forces by the USAFFE to continue serving as Quartermaster on the M/S "Katipunán" until said ship was scuttled on May 3, 1942, at the monthly salary of 780.00; that said Geronimo N. Santizo was not paid his salary for the period covered from February 15 to May 3, 1942.

That affiant personally knows all the foregoing facts because he was the Captain of the said M/S "Katipunán" long before the war broke out and until said vessel was scuttled on May 3, 1942.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, he has hereunto caused his signature to be affixed in the City of Cebu, Philippines, this 26th day of August, 1947.
