INSTRUCTIONS FOR PATIENTS

1. The effective prosecution of the War and the safety of the military personnel demands that no information reach enemy ears. Discussing troop movements, strength, tactics, equipment and installations, observed, are vital secrets upon which the security of our troops depends, any of this information reaching enemy ears may result in loss of life, equipment and time. For your own safety, and the safety of those at home and abroad, it is necessary that your conversation be restricted to a non-military nature. Don't ask questions and don't answer them.

2. This is to acknowledge that I have read the above instructions, and that I understand and am aware of the importance of same. I am aware that disclosure of military information is punishable by Courts Martial.

3. I certify I have read the ward rules of the 13th Station Hospital and I have been informed that the Hospital is not responsible for valuables and money not deposited with the Custodian of Patients Fund.
