Organized originally at Camp 3, June 1942, by piece meal addition and transfer to Camp one the orchestra was reorganized about the beginning of the year 1943 and reached its present composition in Oct 1943. The orchestra performed and appeared regularly as a background for all the Saturday Evening Shows at Camp one and in addition regularly played one full hour of entertainment on Wednesday Evening. In addition the orchestra played at the Camp Hospital, in the kitchens at evening meals and occasionally special numbers were played at Japanese celebrations. A total of about a thousand different musical numbers were played during these various performances which included about a dozen original number composed and popularized by the members of the band. On Feb. 10th at an original number contest the three most popular prize winners were "Moon Magic" composed by Beecher and Paul - (a Ballad) and sung by Harry Mock. "I've never been in Love before" by McCarten - (a Ballad). "please send Me Home" by Lt. Kraft 200th CAC (Old fashioned Waltz).
