to present difficulties.
The marine officer was mainly resenting
the fact that the M.S.

The Paek story - a Georgia cracker - 6th grade - port. USA. working around air fields. Still in Macon when Japs came in - advised to dress up like a big shot and rent room at swanky Macon hotel. Disso, called himself a citizen of Switzerland and a geologist.

Japs got suspicious. He took him in for questioning. Said on a row of different ones and with Paek broke down with "aw hell -" I'm a soldier - private in the rear rank. Jap takes a long run and leads one on the button.
To prison camp. at Port Area in July '43. Got communique in - very optimistic - all the news - Christmas dinner to be at this year - she sends him P/O every other day. Guesses he'll have to marry her. Beard, black eye - dirty

"Many" visiting "japs" come thru and rubber neck at us like we are caged animals in a zoo. we are "paraded" for show off purposes at any time during day under the head of "inspection".
Mutilated are subject of much laughter and amusement.

The ranking medical bel. comes in on inspection, smokes Amer. cigarettes (right after all the hell atoms are selling P.C. supplies). They smoke Amer. cig. and drink us out this straw mixture of Jap + Phil. made.

all reports of fighting down south refer to a "fencing in" manoeuvre which apparently is a new wrinkle in jungle fighting.
As near as I can make out, it consists of loading on an island, surrounding a force, building a wire fence around them and then closing in with the fence. In the Jap reports of Guadalcanal, it would appear that ~~the~~ "the dastardly Americans" built a fence around them and then threw canned meat & chocolate bars at them."

Extracts from a propoganda report in the Japanese newspaper in reference to accomplishments in New Guinea:

"One of the outstanding medical achievements we have accomplished in combatting disease here is getting our men to turn their empty tin cans upside down."

"The conditions are so bad in their country (New Guinea) even the inhabitants can't live here."

The Jap Head of Lt. of Ltak writing in Tokyo's papers -

His description of tunnels Pt. he saw who was fed to the maggots Beautiful nurses - pays high tribute, Describes Cooper as "more like a missionary than a warrior" Craig described a "courteous white haired man of about 40" Comments on "our" nasty water that choked him."

The Guadalcanal scream in the Press:

They couldn't get over it.
Nihui and the 8 dead sentries stacked in the tent one by one.

43
Awar. built a fence around them.
Threw cans of milk in to them. They poured it out. Used leaflets for toilet paper. They desperately charged & all were killed. - apparently also the writer.

● Noji questions "what are you doing to prevent disease." we have explained to him the screening, better garbage disposal, gutter cleaning, fun for toilet menjan are necessary. The doctor reply to them Jap in fun office deny any cases of cholera in city. we now learn Japs have cholera among them. we had reports on the rock before the fall that cholera was abroad on the sw. Pacific. Japs have probably hepatitis Oct 5/43 - Sunny in am. Rainy season hanging on. Should be breaking by now. Still wanting out a classification of patients which will be satisfactory to the Japanese and still conform to American ideas of "Kerry sick", "Lynn sick", "Connalescents", "well", and

 "well cripples."

General routine has become well established and functioning. Few odds and ends of "Kerry stuff" <sup>put</sup> in order but the major issues have been brought under control. Thus, on the 5th day of our regime I feel that we can say that from now on the ship is ours.

Looking ahead for future possibilities, have assigned Bennett to classifying all cases in loop, as "stretcher", "riders", "marchers", "marchers & able to carry gear and baggage." I want to be able to move this outfit on a minutes notice.

Started Langdon on a survey of all patients as to their syphilitic history with a view to keeping up all antibiotic therapy. We did it during hostilities in the field and can do it here now. Consider this of great clinical importance.
