12. Members of the Provincial Government of the Province of Lanao will return to their stations immediately on receipt of this order. Failure to comply with this order will be considered as sufficient cause for arrest and subsequent confinement.

13. During times of extreme emergency such as has occurred in this province during the past 20 days require the presence of all Officials whether Civil or Military to remain at their post in order that the civil population may have confidence in our present government. Any official whether Civil or Military who fails in his duty to his country at this time is not deserving of the privileges that citizenship in that country allow him and is materially contributing to the success of the desire of the enemy to break up all organized Government resistance in this province.

14. It is hoped that all members of the Civil Government will give their full cooperation to the Director of Civil Affairs who has remained at his post at all times and has contributed greatly to the resistance that have been able to offer to the invader:-
