USAFIP, NORTH LUZON

HISTORICAL DATA OF THE 14TH INFANTRY, USAFIP, NL

- a. (1) The 14th Infantry, USAFIP, NL was originally designated as the first Guerrilla Regiment and then redesignated as 14th Infantry USAFFE. Lt Colonel Everett L. Warner, the senior officer, became the Regimental Commander with Major Manuel P. Enriquez (then a Captain) as the CO, HQBN; Captain Warren Minton (then a 1st Lieut.) as CO, 1st Bn and Lt-Colonel Guillermo Nakar (then a Captain) as the CO, 2nd Bn. This regiment was only authorized a total enlisted strength of 800 which was distributed as follows: HQBN - 200; 1st Bn - 300 and 2nd Bn - 300.
- (2) This regiment was organized during the last week of December 1941 and the first week of January 1942.
- (3) Organized at Aritao and Dupax, Nueva Vizcaya.
- (4) By authority from CG, USAFFE.
- (5) The original members came from remnants of the 11th, 12th, 71st and 91st Infantries USAFFE, (PA), 26th Cav (PS), PC Companies and personnel of the 1st Mil. Dist. HQ (PA). These units were cut off due to the rapid advance of the enemy and through no fault of their own could not join the forces in Bataan.
- b. (1) About the middle of February 1942, the regiment was reorganized and its units redesignated as follows: The 2nd Bn under Lt-Colonel Guillermo Nakar (then a Major) became the HQBN and Major Nakar became the Regt'l Executive Officer as well as CO, HQBN; Captain Warren Minton, still CO, 1st Bn; Major Enriquez was assigned CO, 2nd Bn and his original HQBN became the 2nd Bn.
- (2) After the fall of Bataan, 8 April 1942, Lt-Col Warner and Capt Minton left the regiment and Lt-Colonel Nakar then took command. Capt Arnel then became the CO of the HQBN, Capt Fermin Obina, Actg CO, 1st Bn and Major Enriquez, CO of 2nd Bn. After the fall of Corregidor, Lt-Col Nakar, his officers and men refused to surrender and continued to harass the enemy and at the same time endeavored to contact GHQ, SWPA. On June 30, 1942 radio contact with GHQ, SWPA was established and Gen MacArthur congratulated the officers and men of the regiment for refusing to bow their heads to the enemy. The regiment was given the mission to furnish S-2 information as well as enemy treatment towards American and Fil-ipine PSW and civilians. On July 14, 1942, the regiment was federalized and became the 14th Infantry, AUS. Serial Numbers from 0-888070 to 0-888169 were given to officers and from 10626000 to 10662999 for enlisted men. In a Special Orders dated 2 August 1942, some of the officers of the regiment were promoted by GHQ, SWPA among whom were Major Robert A. Arnold; Captains Fermin Obina, Arturo Dingcong, Tesoro Reyes, Juan Asuncion, Januarie Longne; First Lieuts Honorio Quines, Benjamin Perdido, Julian Perdiguera, Antonio Castro, Eulogio Buena, Harley F. Heib, Francis Camp and others.

(3) On Sept. 29, 1942, Lt-Col Nakar with some officers and EM were captured in Minuri, Jones, Isabela. Major Enriquez who was then the ExO assumed command of the regiment and was promoted Lt-Col by Lt-Col Martin Moses, CO, USAFIP, NL guerrillas. Major Arnold, CO, HQBN; Capt Fermin Obina, Actg CO, 1st Bn; Major R. A. Manriquez was appointed CO, 2nd Bn, relieving Capt Brienos who was appointed CO of the PC Co attached and Capt Thomas Acep was appointed CO of 3rd Bn.

(4) On April 12, 1943, Lt-Col M. P. Enriquez, Capt Acep and some officers of the 3rd Bn staff surrendered to the Japanese Forces at Baguio. Major R. A. Manriquez who was appointed Ex-O of the regiment assumed command. Major Arnold, CO, HQBN, assumed command of 1st Bn also after the capture of Capt Obina, Capt B. Perdido was assigned CO, 2nd Bn and Capt Quines was assigned CO of 3rd Bn.

(5) Attempts to contact the supposed 1st Bn under Major Arnold were undertaken but without results. 1st Lieut Barthelome de Vina who was sent to reorganize the 1st Bn on January 1944 was killed in action. Capt Patricio Dumlae was sent again to Isabela on June 1944 to continue the reorganization of the 1st Bn which was accomplished in Sept. 1944.

(6) CO A, 1st Bn, 14th Infantry, AUS under Major Arnold was contacted on Oct. 28, 1944 and upon orders of GHQ, USAFIP, NL all officers and EM of this Co except Major Arnold and Capt Heib were transferred to the 14th Inf, USAFIP, NL. This unit was designated Special Co of this regiment but which was later dissolved and distributed to the regular units when all the units of the USAFIP, NL were placed to war footing basis.

(7) When the regiment was placed to war footing basis under the command of Lt-Col Manriquez, Capt Saturnino Dumlae was assigned CO, HQBN; Capt Patricio Dumlae

CO, 1st Bn; Major Z. Paredes, CO, 2nd Bn; and Capt P. Mabunga, CO, 3rd Bn. On 4 March 45, Capt S. Dumlae accidentally straffed by friendly planes at HAPID, died in line of duty and Major A. Dingcong was assigned CO, HQBN. On 1 March 45, Capt P. Dumlae was relieved as CO, 1st Bn by Major B. Capayas who was WIA at VIRA, Gamu on 6 May 45 and was later relieved by Major A. Damian on 11 May 45. Major A. Dingcong was relieved as CO, HQBN on 11 May 45 and assigned Ex-0 of the regiment. Major S. Mendoza was assigned CO, HQBN on 26 May 45. On 1 March 45, Capt P. Mabunga was relieved as CO, 3rd Bn by Capt M. Balauag.

- (8) On 11 May 45, 1st Bn was attached to 11th Inf, USAFIP, NL, then to 37th Div, 6th Army on 20 June 45 and again to 11th Infantry, USAFIP, NL on 12 July 45. I Co attached to RAC Bn, 26 April 1945. K Co attached to USAFIP, NL April 1945. M Co attached to 128th Inf, AUS on 24 February 1945. M Co attached to GHQ, USAFIP, NL on 3 May 1945. I and M Cos attached to MP Bn, 13 May 1945. 14th Inf, USAFIP, NL (less 1st Bn and Cos I, K and M) attached to 6th Div, 6th Army, 1 July 1945.

- e. During the period of the war, many officers and EM came to join the 14th Infantry, most of whom were stragglers from various units of the USAFFE and quite a few were reserve officers and reservists who were not called to active duty when the war broke out. The 14th Infantry was therefore always at its authorized enlisted strength of 800 men and 64 officers with some 200 PC soldiers and officers attached until this regiment was placed to war footing basis on December 1944. The following are the strength of the regiment from the month of December 1944 to June 1945.

- j. Former and Present Members who have distinguished themselves in Action:
1. (a) Engagement - Raid on HWY 5 between Angadenan and Cauayan, Isabela on 19 January 1945.
 - (b) Name - Francisco Farales, Sgt., E Co.
 - (c) Act - Sgt. Farales in several encounters and skirmishes with the Japs proved to be daring and fearless. He was imprisoned in Bayombong, N. Vizcaya in 1943 together with his wife and father-in-law. In some way or another he was able to escape and re-joined the 14th Infantry. He was known as one of the open generosity to the hiding elements, his fearless bearing in combat, and unflinching faith in the cause which claimed his life on 19 January 1945 in a daring raid of the enemy at HWY 5 where he was killed and died on the spot, dying a hero's death.

(d) Recommended for - Award of decoration of the Distinguished Service Medal. (Posthumous)

2. (a) Engagement - attack of enemy Garrison at Lamut, Kiangang on 11 January 1945 at 0900.

(b) Name - Francisco Agunien, Pvt., F Co.

(c) Act - During the raid at Lamut, Kiangang on 11 January 1945, Pvt. F. Agunien, disregarding personal safety above and beyond the call of duty, creep close to the enemy with his TSMG and with a burst, silenced 1 enemy MG saving the lives of his comrades who were pinned to the ground due to enemy superiority in arms and number. The enemy then concentrated their fire on Pvt. F. Agunien and got him with a bullet thru his head causing his instant death.

(d) Recommended for - Award of decoration of the Distinguished Service Medal. (Posthumous)

3. (a) Engagement - 1st Counter attack on Hapid Airfield on 1 April 1945. - Award of the Distinguished Ser-

(b) Name Medal. - Rafael Paluero, Capt., CO, H Co.

(c) Act - During the counter attack on Hapid Airfield on 1st April 45, Capt. Paluero distinguished himself by his outstanding gallantry and bravery

(b) when he led his men against the enemy well entrenched and superior in arms. He was able to break the stiff resistance of the enemy forcing them to withdraw with heavy casualties. Unfortunately, while he and his men were mopping up the remnants of the enemy, he was shot by a sniper causing his death.

(d) Recommended for - Award of decoration of the Silver Star. (Posthumous)

4. (a) Engagement - Encounter at Panupdupan, Kiangang on 10 February 1945. rough hunger, disease and exhaustion

(b) Name Medal. - Saturnino Dunlao, Major

(c) Act - Major S. Dunlao was one of the few officers of the 14th Infantry. His last encounter with the enemy before his tragic death was at Panupdupan, Kiangang on 10 February 1945, when he decided to meet the enemy in big number who were heading for Panupdupan, then the location of the RHQ, and Base Hospital. The enemy had the advantage of superiority in number and arms but his cool, calculating disposition and his courage in face of danger made it possible for the delay of the enemy advance and the safety of the RHQ and the non-combatant personnel. On 4 March 1945, Major O. Dunlao while building the Hapid Airfield, two friendly planes on reconnaissance patrol swooped down and strafed the field causing his death shortly after.

- (d) Recommended for - Award of decoration of the Distinguished Service Cross. (Posthumous)

5. (a) Engagement - Attack of the Japanese Garrison at Bayombong, N. Vizcaya.
- (b) Name - Basilio Briones, 1st Lt.
- (c) Act - Lt. B. Briones had distinguished himself for his fine leadership and for his many deeds of valor and gallantry in action against the enemy. In the middle of Sept. 1942, the Jap garrison at Bayombong was attacked by a poorly armed guerrillas led by Lt. Briones, the first and most daring attack on the enemy occupied capital when everyone thought it to be impossible but was done by this young and daring officer. This was the beginning of a series of attacks and ambushing of the enemy until he was finally caught up in his hideout on fateful day in May 1943, while he was down with malaria. He was taken shortly after to Fort Santiago where he was beheaded shortly after.
- (d) Recommended for - Award of the Distinguished Service Medal. (Posthumous)
6. (a) Engagement - Engagement of Bauang, La Union on December 12, 1941.
- (b) Name - Guillermo Nakar, Lt-Colonel
- (c) Act - On December 10, 1941, Lt-Col Nakar, then a Captain and CO, 1st Bn, 71st Inf, USAFFE, leading his men with orders to stop at all cost the steady advancing horde of Japs from Bauang, La Union, found his unit practically cut off from all other friendly troops from the north. After one of the fiercest battles and bloodiest fight ever recorded during the period he was able to pull out his unit from sure annihilation. He was able to lead the remnants of his battalion through hunger, disease and exhaustion from Bauang, La Union thru the most hazardous inclines of the Cordilleras to Aritao, N. Vizcaya in his efforts to join our forces at Bataan. After 17 days of forced march, Lt-Col Nakar with his men, hungry, haggard and destitute, greatly whittled down by exhaustion arrived at Aritao, only to find out that San Jose, N. Ecija had been occupied by the Japs and that there was no way for them to go to Bataan. There he and Major Manuel P. Enriquez together with Col. Everett Warner organized what was later to be designated as the 14th Infantry, USAFFE, the first organized unit to engage in guerrilla activities in the Philippines. When Bataan fell, Col. Warner left the command to Col. Nakar who was then known as the guerrilla head of the Cagayan Valley. Corrigido fell; the Japs resorted to all possible means of effecting his surrender by dropping leaflets of Gen. Wainwright's order and personal appeal to him to surrender, with grand promises of his safety and mercenary assurances of his freedom, tempting fabulous financial rewards and grant any government positions of his choice, but instead he intensified operations against the enemy until captured on Sept. 29, 1942. While a prisoner, he never bowed down to the Japs, his faith and loyalty to the United States Army never failed and his resolve to stick to this oath of allegiance remained unshaken and is manifested in a speech to the public at Echague, Isabela while under custody when, instead of appealing to the populace to cooperate with Japan as was the order of his captors, he defiantly denounced the cruelties, abuses and brutalities of the Japs, and urging the people to continue to fight assuring them that the forces of liberation will soon be back. Despite the daring denunciation, the enemy persistently offered his freedom if he would sign the surrender papers, but all their efforts failed when he said bluntly 'I swore allegiance to the United States of America and my country and I cannot transfer my allegiance to Japan.' Reliable information is to the effect that he was brought to Fort Santiago and that after all efforts to make him sign and accept the terms imposed on him by the enemy failed, he was promptly executed.

7. (a) Engagement - Ambush of the enemy at Balete Pass and other ambushes.

(b) Name - Honorio S. Quines, Capt.

(c) Act - Capt. H. Quines was one of the early organizers of the 14th Infantry. With Col. E. Warner and G. Nakar he helped in the gigantic task of organizing an army in the Cagayan Valley, in January 1942. He liberated the town of Arranglan, N. Ecija in March 1942, and one time, with a handful of selected men he ambushed two truckloads of Japs hurtling the trucks into the steep, deep precipice of Balete Pass. He liberated the town of Digdig in April 1942, and led another successful ambush in Balete

Pass in November 1942 and another in the same road in November 1943. During the tightest mopping up operations of the enemy, Capt. Quines' hideout was located in Natigidad, Pangasinan and was placed on custody on Feb. 13, 1944 in Tayug Garrison. During his stay in prison, he refused all and every offer of Japanese cheap freedom and persistently avoided to sign the surrender papers, oblivious of his personal safety. "I was born once - I had pledge my allegiance and loyalty but once and I cannot pledge another.", these were the last words of Capt. H. Quines, an officer and a gentleman, when he was confronted with an offer that would have spared his life. With this violent opposition the Garrison Commander took reprisal. He was beheaded at 2300 hours on 24 March 1944.

8. (a) Engagement - Col. M. Alvarez was distinguished
(b) Name - Douglas Lopez, 1st Lieut., I Co.
(c) Act - On 6 March 1944, Lt. Lopez was given a perilous order to contact the BC Command of San Jose, N. Cebu, Ganap infested town of N. Cebu for any possible walkout en masse. He succeeded in contacting Lt. Hidalgo, head of the BC and relying upon Hidalgo's honest intentions, Lt. Lopez proceeded to the constabulary barracks where Hidalgo played Judas incarnate. There alone and unaided he was dragged deeper and deeper into the mire of Hidalgo's dragnet. With his hands tied behind his back, he was forced to drink a saful of water. They tortured him in the fancy they thought was regal, until his body racked with pain. Mutilated and emaciated in body, but steadfast in his spirit - in high resolves not to divulge anything concerning his companions and unit, Lt. D. Lopez died a hero's death.

25. (a) Engagement -
(b) Name - Vicente A. Matias, 1st Lieut.
(c) Act - Lt. V. A. Matias was one of the officers of the 14th Infantry who, since the Japanese occupation, was never captured and never surrendered. He was called to the colors in Sept. 1941, and some way or another was not able to join the forces in Bataan. When he realized that the Army in which he belonged could not stem the onslaught of the invader, and that men like him were being hunted and killed like dogs, he fled to the mountains to join his comrades who were already there, and reamed the jungles evading the enemy here but ambushing him there. He patiently overcame all the hardships in the jungle, and exposure to the elements and mercy of jungle denizens. Whenever he got sick his only medicine was his will and determination to live and fight the ruthless foe, and kept the light of patriotism burning in the hearts of his comrades and his men. When the 14th Infantry was properly organized, under Lt-Col Manriquez, he together with the help of other officers, organized companies and succeeded. It was mainly due to the patience and efforts as well as the bravery of Lt. Matias that the 2nd Bn, 14th Infantry was fully organized.
