Commendation is hereby given to you and all members of your WAS organization for the very splendid service which all of you have rendered unselfishly to the Army and to your country.

Your organization is an illustrious, magnificent step towards helping the Army drive from our shores the brute and beastly Japanese invaders.

PATRIOTS, GARRY ON!

To : Capt. LEON NARAG, Inf
CO "D" Company, Sub-Sector "C", CNS

Reference Inspection Report of Capt. A. M. Mendaros, Inf, Asst G37MD, dated 10 March '44, you are hereby commended for the accomplishments, interest and undivided effort in bringing your unit in a high level. Its fighting ability, efficiency in combat is commendable; its security in combat, plans, tactics and capabilities are worthy of mention. Although other units may show the same thing, still your unit excels in this line. All of these attribute of an able administrator and unit commander.

The courage that you have shown in your endeavor to bring your unit in a high level has won our sympathy and admiration. This is one thing that no other people can take it away from you. The District Commander reiterates his commendation to you for the tireless effort that you have done. Keep it up.

Regards and best wishes for a long life of your men.
