The Arroceria de Pototan continued to draw against its credit with the plaintiff Bank until December 8, 1921, when its overdraft amounted to P77,944.40, of which amount the plaintiff then demanded payment, within 60 days. The Arroceria was able to pay only P1,000 and on the 50th of November, 1923, the amount due with interest up to September 30, 1923, reached the sum of P84,222.98. The plaintiff thereupon brought an action against the Corporation as a result of which it was able on January 26, 1925, to collect the sum of P43,100, leaving a balance of P41,751.37 due and unpaid. In the meantime and while the action against the Arroceria de Pototan was pending, the plaintiff by virtue of the bonds above quoted presented a claim to the committee of claims against the estate of the then deceased, Francisco Echevarria for the full amount of the debt of the Arroceria de Pototan to the Bank. The Committee allowed the claim and the administrator of the estate appealed to the Court of First Instance, which on January 30, 1926, rendered a terms of the receipt, as they were before alteration.

Material and fraudulent alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from liability to deliver, according to the terms of the receipt as originally issued, the goods for which it was issued, but shall excuse him from any other liability to the person who made the alteration and to any person who took with notice of the alteration. Any purchaser of the receipt for value without notice of the alteration shall acquire the same rights against the warehouseman which such purchaser would have acquired if the receipt had not been altered at the time of the purchase.

SEC. 14. Lost or destroyed receipts. - Where a negotiable receipt has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction, may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient sureties to be approved by the court to protect the warehouseman from any liability or expense, which he or any person injured by such delivery may incur by reason of the original receipt remaining outstanding. The court may also in its discretion order the payment of the warehouseman's reasonable costs and counsel fees.

The delivery of the goods under an order of the court as provided in this section, shall not relieve the warehouseman from liability to a person to whom the negotiable receipt has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods.

SEC. 15. Effect of duplicate receipts. - A receipt upon the face of which the word "duplicate" is plainly placed is a representation and warranty by the warehouseman that such receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and unanceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate but shall impose upon him no other liability.

SEC. 16. Warehouseman can not set up title in himself. No title or right to the possession of the goods, on the part of the warehouseman, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the depositor at the time of or subsequent to the deposit for storage, or from the warehouseman's lien, shall excuse the warehouseman from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

SEC. 17. Interpleader of adverse claimants. - If more than one person claims the title or possession of the goods, the warehouseman may either as a defense to an action brought against him for nondelivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate, require all known claimants to interplead.

SEC. 18. Warehouseman has reasonable time to determine validity of claims. - If some one other than the depositor or person claiming under him has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the warehouseman has information of such claim, the warehouseman shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods, either to the depositor or person claiming under him or to the adverse claimant, and discharge the sureties therefrom, nevertheless the plaintiff has ratified the agreement by accepting part payment of the amount due thereunder with full knowledge of its terms. In her amended complaint the plaintiff asserts that Figueras had no authority to execute the contract containing the release (Exhibit 1) and that the same had never been ratified by her.

The question thus raised as to whether the plaintiff is bound by Exhibit 1 constitutes the main controversy in the case, since if this point should be determined in the affirmative the plaintiff obviously has no right of action against any of the defendants. We accordingly address ourselves to this point first.

The partial substitution of agency (Exhibit B to amended complaint) purports to confer on Figueras Hermanos or the person or persons exercising legal representation of the same all of the powers that had been conferred on Pirretas by the plaintiff in the original power of attorney. This original power of attorney is not before us, but assuming, as it stated in Exhibit B, that this document contained a general power to Pirretas to sell the business known as La Flor de Cataluña upon condition to be fixed by him and power to collect money due to the plaintiff upon any account, with a further power of substitution, yet it is obvious upon the face of the act of substitution (Exhibit B) that the sole purpose was to authorize Figueras Hermanos to collect the balance due to the plaintiff upon the price of La Flor de Cataluña, the sale of which had already been effected by Pirretas. The words of Exhibit B on this point are quite explicit ("to the end that the said lady may be able to collect the balance of the selling price of the Printing Establishment and Bookstore above-mentioned, which has been sold to Messrs. Bosque and Pomar"). There is nothing here that can be construed to authorize Figueras Hermanos to discharge any of the debtors without payment or to novate the contract by which their obligation was created. On the contrary the terms of the substitution shows the limited extent of the power. A further noteworthy feature of the contract Exhibit 1 has reference to the personality of the purported attorney in fact and the manner in which the contract was signed. Under the Exhibit B the substituted authority should be exercised by the mercantile entity Figueras Hermanos or the person duly authorized to represent the same. In the actual execution of Exhibit 1, M. T. Figueras intervenes as purported attorney in fact without anything whatever to show
